THE Democrat will continue to be a faithful advocate and supporter of the principles of the republican party. Its energies will be especially devoted to the west—to the advocacy of western interests and the assertion of western rights. The administration of Abraham Lincoln shall receive its cordial and unfaltering support. The great measures of a Pacific railroad on the central route; free lands for the landless; the improvement of river navigation; retrenchment and reform in all the departments of the federal government, will be urged with that zeal and devotion which have won for the Democrat its present position. On all questions it will boldly espouse the right and only seek its advancement through the public good.

ITS NEWS, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS,

shall be all that readers could desire. The Political, Agricultural and Manufacturing Interests of the country shall receive due attention.

THE COMMERCIAL CHARACTER

of the Democrat is well established. DAILY GAZETTE.

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS.—Milo E. Palmer and Hank. C. Reber, two great big hearted, two story, double breasted patriots, have started in to recruit a rifle company in our city and neighborhood, for one of the new regiments, with a zeal and spirit truly refreshing; and they are going to win. Here's their call:

"ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS—to the Rescue—Shall Brown county have a representative in this war other than those who seek for place and pay? The subscribers answer aye! All those of the same opinion, will find an opportunity of enlisting at Desnoyer's Hall, in the corner block, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M., for one week."

There is a spice of malice as well as wit in the above notice, which we cannot permit to go without correction and chastisement. It is true Green Bay has furnished no vulgar privates for the purpose of this war; and it oughtn't to have been expected of us. "Every man in his own order," is scripture; and as good as Gospel. The refuse population of Oconto, Appleton, and Oshkosh, and those places, afforded just as good fellows to stand up and be shot at as the chivalry and dignity of Green Bay.—They can shoot a gun as far, and stop a ball as quick as we can.

But when it comes to officers, good, capable, enterprising and willing men, to take charge of things in the field, in the commissary, in the exchequer, Green Bay just flings herself right in the breach. See now what we have done in that line. We have furnished 3 captains, 1 lieutenant, 1 quarter master, 2 assistant do, 1 commissary, 2 surgeons, 1 pay master, 1 pay master's clerk, 1 assistant United State's treasurer. And we hold ourselves ready to do as much more in that line as any town of our age and inches in the state.—Green Bay Press.

HOW THE BULL RUN BATTLE WAS RECEIVED.—Speaking of the late battle at Bull Run and the retreat, the San Francisco Alta says:

"The remarks of the various groups who stood upon the street corners and in public places showed the feeling that prevailed.—It was one of intense bitterness. Men, with pale faces, compressed lips, and clenched fists were heard to exclaim, 'This must be avenged, they were in greater numbers and behind intrenched camps; they dare not meet us face to face in the open field.' Others of more nervous temperament seemed almost frantic, and gave utterance to some very forcible expressions, natural, but scarcely fit for print. Everywhere the feeling evinced was not of fear as to the final result, but of regret and indignation. It will re arouse the north; and though they may have killed a thousand through the bad management of one of our Generals, a million will take their place, was the general observation. The few traitors in our midst kept quiet—very quiet—and showed no signs of jubilation. Indeed, it was well that they did not, for men's passions were aroused to an unwonted degree. It would not have been difficult to raise a brigade for the war last night in this city. From this our readers may form an idea of the feeling that exists in the loyal cities of the north. The great battle has surely given vast proportions and a different aspect to the war now raging for the preservation of the American Nation."

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes, soon after I became blind I an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS VAUGHN.

THE Democrat will continue to be a faithful advocate and supporter of the principles of the republican party. Its energies will be especially devoted to the west—to the advocacy of western interests and the assertion of western rights. The administration of Abraham Lincoln shall receive its cordial and unfaltering support. The great measures of a Pacific railroad on the central route; free lands for the landless; the improvement of river navigation; retrenchment and reform in all the departments of the federal government, will be urged with that zeal and devotion which have won for the Democrat its present position. On all questions it will boldly espouse the right, and only seek its advancement through the public good.

ITS NEWS, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS,

shall be all that readers could desire. The Political, Agricultural and Manufacturing interests of the country shall receive due attention.

THE COMMERCIAL CHARACTER

DAILY GAZETTE.

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS.—Milo E. Palmer and Hank. C. Reber, two great big hearted, two-story, double-breasted patriots, have started in to recruit a rifle company in our city and neighborhood, for one of the new regiments, with a zeal and spirit truly refreshing; and they are going to win. Here's their call:

"ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS—to the Rescue—Shall Brown county have a representative in this war other than those who seek for place and pay? The subscribers answer aye! All those of the same opinion, will find an opportunity of enlisting at Desnoyer's Hall, in the corner block, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M., for one week."

There is a spice of malice as well as wit in the above notice, which we cannot permit to go without correction and chastisement. It is true Green Bay has furnished no vulgar privates for the purpose of this war; and it oughtn't to have been expected of us. "Every man in his own order," is scripture; and as good as Gospel. The refuse population of Oconto, Appleton, and Oshkosh, and those places, afforded just as good fellows to stand up and be shot at as the chivalry and dignity of Green Bay.—They can shoot a gun as far, and stop a ball as quick as we can.

But when it comes to officers, 'good, capable, enterprising and willing men, to take charge of things in the field, in the commissary, in the exchequer, Green Bay just flings herself right in the breach. See now what we have done in that line. We have furnished 3 captains, 1 lieutenant, 1 quarter master, 2 assistant do, 1 commissary, 2 surgeons, 1 pay master, 1 pay master's clerk, 1 assistant United State's treasurer. And we hold ourselves ready to do as much more in that line as any town of our age and inches in the state.—Green Bay Press.

HOW THE BULL RUN BATTLE WAS RECEIVED.—Speaking of the late battle at Bull Run and the retreat, the San Francisco Alta says:

"The remarks of the various groups who stood upon the street corners and in public places showed the feeling that prevailed.—It was one of intense bitterness. Men, with pale faces, compressed lips, and clenched fists were heard to exclaim, 'This must be avenged; they were in greater numbers and behind intrenched camps; they dare not meet us face to face in the open field.' Others of more nervous temperament seemed almost frantic, and gave utterance to some very forcible expressions, natural, but scarcely fit for print. Everywhere the feeling evinced was not of fear as to the final result, but of regret and indignation. It will re-arouse the north; and though they may have killed a thousand through the bad management of one of our Generals, a million will take their place, was the general observation. The few traitors in our midst kept quiet—very quiet—and showed no signs of jubilation. Indeed, it was well that they did not, for men's passions were aroused to an unwonted degree. It would not have been difficult to raise a brigade for the war last night in this city. From this our readers may form an idea of the feeling that exists in the loyal cities of the north. The great battle has surely given vast proportions and a different aspect to the war now raging for the preservation of the American Nation."

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

WESTON MILLER, ORRIN GUERNSEY, } Assembly Dist. Com.

Firing on the Virginia Side.

Our despatches daily bring us this news. It may result in a general engagement at any time. The rebles are throwing up immense earthworks on both sides of Munson's Hill, on the Leesburg turnpike, one mile from Baliey's Cross Roads. It is cleared land, and can be plainly seen from our out posts. They have a temporary battery to cover their working parties. It is not likely that Gen. McClellan will allow this to go on a great while, and the firing to-day may be in consequence of his disputing their progress.

The Importance of Butler's Victory.

Just at this time nothing could be more opportune than the victory of Gen. Butler on the North Carolina coast. It gives renewed spirit to the Union cause everywhere, and we have not a doubt has promoted enlistments very materially throughout the country. Men feel a confidence that beneath the impenetrable cloud which now envelopes military affairs, that the administration is at work. We hope to see more results of a like importance before many days.

The victory is important also because it removes one of the principal difficulties in enforcing the blockade, which it is the interest of certain foreign nations to break up if possible. That portion of the North Carolina coast which is now under effective control, is just becoming dangerous to large vessels, on account of the approach of the season of storms. It is peculiar in its formation, making it the scene of more wrecks than any other point on our maritime borders. For hundreds of miles along the coast of North Carolina there is a series of sand bar islands, leaving a basin of water between them and the main shore. This sand bar has several inlets, but the principal one is Hatteras, where the rebels had constructed two forts which have been taken and occupied, together with the light house. Within the basins and sounds to which the Hatteras Inlet leads, the rebels could safely moor their privateers, while they would keep a look out, giving signals to their piratical crafts to come out when a good prize was passing at sea. It is the key of Albemarle Sound, which reaches up near and back of Norfolk, and of Pamlico Sound, extending into North Carolina, upon which are the towns of Newburn and Washington. The possession of Hatteras Inlet, the rebel engineer, whose report was found, says, "is a station second in importance only to Fortress Monroe," and this estimate is, doubtless, not overrated. Why it has never been effectually fortified by the government is strange, considering that it can be made to control so extensive a line of sea coast, as well as the trade of the interior.

THE REPORTED DEATH OF JEFF. DAVIS.—The report of the death of Davis is neither confirmed nor denied by the telegraphic dispatches of this afternoon. We do not rely much upon it, as the rebels are in the habit of manufacturing falsehoods of this kind, for their own amusement, or to effect some ulterior purpose. The health of the rebel chief has been bad for many years, and the wear and tear, physical and mental, for the last few months have been considerable upon a frail constitution, not to say anything of the pains of a guilty conscience, which the most desperate villain, it is said, does not lose entirely. If he is dead there may be a rebellion in the lower dominions before many weeks, as it is believed that Jeff. Davis would at any time "rather reign in hell than serve in Heaven."

The supervisors of Wood county have voted to the families of volunteers, three dollars per month for the wife, and two dollars per month for each child.

☞ We notice in an Albany (N. Y.) paper that Mr. Levi Cass, formerly principal of our High School, has established a school of the same kind in that city.

Honorable Andrew Johnson was serenaded in Cincinnati on the 1st. He made a speech to the large crowd assembled.

MR. HOLT IN BOSTON.

ANOTHER NOBLE SPEECH FROM THE KENTUCKY PATRIOT.

BOSTON, Aug. 29, 1861.

The citizens of Boston gave expression, on Tuesday evening, to the sentiments of high respect which they entertained for the Hon. Joseph Holt, individually, and as a son of the noble state of Kentucky, by a very enthusiastic demonstration in front of the Tremont House.

Mr. Holt descended the steps about 9½ o'clock, with the committee of arrangements and his appearance was the signal for enthusiastic applause. The Hon. Edward Everett then welcomed Mr. Holt to Boston.

At the conclusion of Mr. Everett's remarks, cheers were given for Mr. Holt and for the state of Kentucky, with great enthusiasm. After the band had performed a patriotic air, Mr. Holt stepped forward, and was received with warm applause He said:

SPEECH OF MR. HOLT.

FELLOW CITIZENS: I came to Boston, as do many American travelers, not merely to look upon the city beautiful in itself—upon its monuments, and upon these magnificent landscapes in which, as a jewel, it is set—but also so to revive, if haply I might, the glow of my patriotism amid the thrilling associations that cluster around this cradle of the Revolution. [Cheers and cries of "good"] Here are gardens of memories which can never never lose their fragrances; here are altars whose fires, though kindled in behalf of human rights nearly a century ago, have waxed only the brighter for the years through which they have burned. No true son of the republic can press the soil of Bunker Hill without having his veneration for your great ancestors deepened and exalted, and without feeling his vows of devotion to the country strengthened and renewed. [Cheers.]

I am thankful for that most earnest, that most eloquent, that most flattering recognition, which in your name has been given, of my fidelity to our common country, under circumstances of peril and of trial. Most grateful, too, am I for that friendly, that kindly allusion to my native state, Kentucky, [cheers for Kentucky,] whose star, so long obscured by the baleful influence of unfaithful men, is now preparing to shine forth in the strength and luster of other days. [Applause, and cries of "good," "good."]

Kentucky has assumed her present position under no prompting of passion, but calmly and deliberately, after careful review of the whole field of controversy, and in view of all the gloom and perils that encompass the Union, she now avows she loves it still, and will cling to it amid its sorrows, as she has clung to it in the days of its strength and its glory. [Cheers.] That which she has so nobly declared from the ballot-box, it is now her manifest duty to make good upon the battle-field, [immense applause;] and that duty, already begun, will, I firmly believe, be faithfully performed upon the meeting of her legislature, which takes place but a few days hence. Full, full will be the measure of my joy, when I shall behold the patriot soldiers of Massachusetts and the patriot soldiers of Kentucky meeting upon the same fields of danger, and with the grasp of their fraternal hands, rebuking those traitorous men who, through long years, have striven to render them aliens and enemies to each other.

Fellow citizens, I am gratified to say that during the somewhat extended tour that I have just made, I have nowhere found the public voice faint, or the public voice faltering, in reference to the vigorous prosecution of this war, until the stars and stripes shall float on every flagstaff from which they have been torn. [Applause.] Nowhere have I heard the word COMPROMISE—[cheers and cries of "good," "good,"]—a word which can now be uttered only by disloyal lips, or by those speaking openly and directly in the interests of the rebellion. [Cheers, and a voice—"That's the kind of talk."] So long as the rebels have arms in their hands, there is nothing to compromise [cheers]—nothing but the honor of the country and the integrity of the government; and who, but he who is ready to fill a coward's grave, is prepared for submission to such humiliation as this?

Fellow citizens, It cannot be disguised that we stand at this moment confronted by great national calamities. Eleven members of our Union are in open, and thus far, successful revolt; and an army, it may be of a hundred thousand men, breathing vengeance and slaughter, is hovering upon our lines and menacing the safety of Washington. From this pressing peril no valiant resolves, no brilliant declamation, no fervid prophesyings can possibly deliver us. Nothing but the sword, wielded by skillful and heroic hands, can now save this country from the last catastrophe that can befall a free people. The enemy has been tested, and we can no longer underrate either his power or his recklessness in battle.

Let no man cherish the belief that since this rebellion is the cause of crime, that therefore it will be the less daringly maintained. History has recorded, for our instruction and admiration, that Cataline and his co-conspirators fell with their faces to the enemy; and so probobly will fall the rebel leaders of the south. The more earnest the more prompt, the more united the efforts that are now made, the briefer will be the struggle. All delay, all seeming hesitancy, all discussion, will strengthen the rebellion itself, is fraught with incalculable danger and mischief to ourselves.

If, however, from any cause, this contest is to be prolonged, we must not seek to conceal from ourselves its possible consequences; but even now, in advance, we should bravely and calmly look the worst of them in the face. Your ships may have to furl their sails in many a sea, and the grass may spring up in marts heretofore pressed by the busy feet of commerce; wide spread bankruptcy may possibly ensue, and the wail of sorrow may go up, not only from stricken households and communities, but also from cities and states, over the brave and true men who have laid down their lives upon the altar of their country. But our institutions are well worth all these sacrifices which we may or can possibly make for their preservation. All that we are and all that we have are the fruits of these institutions; and all that we may now generously devote to their safety in this hour of their extreme peril, if we are successful, they will give back to us and our children's children, increased a hundred, nay, a thousand fold.

But even now, in the very shadow of these threatened disasters, even this night and this hour, we could have peace. We could have peace by laying down our necks, our country and our flag in the dust beneath the feet of remorseless traitors. [Loud cries of "Never," "Never!"] But how can we do this, seeing that the graves of our fathers are yet with us, and that Bunker Hill yet speaks to us with voices which will not and cannot be stifled? [Cheers.]

If we falter, we fail; and not only will Washington, your capitol, be subjugated and sacked, but your cities and your fields will be swept over by an army carrying in its train desolations scarcely surpassed since the Goths stabbed their steeds in the palaces of the Cæsars. The fiendish tone of the southern press, its exultant threatenings, and the events which have already transpired, fully justify me in this declaration. If, therefore, we think of our lands and gold, of our merchandise and pleasant homes, or even of the blood that courses in our veins, in contrast with the integrity of our government, we are lost; we shall perish suddenly, irretrieveably, and ignominiously. But if true to ourselves, as I verily believe we will be, if true to the kindling memories of the past, and to the grandeur of our mission as a people, your armies will assuredly triumph; and that triumph the Union sentiment of the south will render complete and enduring [applause,] and thus, out of all this national turmoil, and battle, and blood-shed, and wringing anguish, there will in the end arise a future for our country, bright as that rainbow which spans the mists that mount above the tortured hell of Niagara's waters. For that future, that bow of promise and of beauty may well be accepted as the appropriate emblem. [Applause.]

One of the most fearful obstacles which has been encountered in the successful prosecution of this war is the disloyalty found in the midst of us. [Cries of "that's so."] This is especially true in relation to Washington and the border states; but it is in a great degree true everywhere, and to this is traceable much of that discouragement under which the nation is now suffering.

The country is now rejoicing in those bold and decided measures which the President is taking to subdue this fatal source of weakness and defeat. [Cheers.] It is in vain that the stalwart arms and hearts of this great nation toil at the pumps, so long as men are kept on board with augers in their pockets, who at every stolen opportunity are boring holes in the bottom of the noble ship on which we are embarked. [Applause.]

Fellow-citizens, the thought of dismembering this Union, which has been the source of all our strength and all our joys as a nation, can be entertained by no true man. Dismemberment would involve the abasement of all which we, as Americans, have so long and so justly been proud, and the complete ruin of the grand inheritance which we have received from our fathers, and which it is our duty to transmit undiminished in its blessings to our descendants. It would conduct us from places of prosperity and power to hovels of wretchedness and to graves of dishonor.

When the wise man of old, sitting in judgment upon the rival claims of two mothers to the possession of the same child, decreed that it should be cut in twain, and that one half should be given to the one claimant and the other half to the other, it was the false mother who accepted and exulted in the judgment, while the true mother turned away with horror, preferring to commit the life of her offspring to the keeping of even her own enemy, rather than that it should thus perish. The filial and the maternal instincts are in this regard the same. The man who is willing that this prosperous and free country shall be severed by the sword of treason now suspended over it, may have been born upon American soil, but he has no American heart in his bosom. [Cheers, and cries of "good."] The true son of the republic, like the true mother, turns away from the proposal with indignation and abhorrence. [Great cheering.]

GEN. ROSENCRANS'S ARMY.—The Clarksburg correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says (Aug. 30):

The southern division of the rebel Western Virginia army is supposed to be gradually pushing its way beyond Summersville in the hope of "surrounding" Cox's force at Gauley and regaining the Kanawha. Meanwhile the lines of the two hostile armies at the Cheat Mountain Gaps are gradually approaching and the pickets are now almost within gun shot of each other. Of course nothing would please Lee better than to have Wise create a diversion on the Kanawha that would induce Gen. Rosencrans to withdraw his forces from the Gaps, and so leave a weak point exposed to the watchful enemy. Gen. Lee, it is supposed, will be hardly gratified. But it must be seen that the alarm given in this correspondence some time ago, as to the imperative demand for troops here, was not given a day too soon. We may suffer yet, because the people at home have been and are too skeptical on so vital a point.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal says of Mr. Potter's labors as chairman of the committee for clearing the departments of secessionists:

Mr. Potter is doing the country good service, and it is wholly a work of patriotism, for congressmen being paid a salary, he gets no extra pay for services in the recess of congress, and is not even allowed anything for extra expenses in Washington, and in traveling about the country on public business.

WHY THE SOUTHERN ARMY DO NOT MOVE.—The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel, of the 18th has the following:

It is well known now that General Beauregard's forces at Manassas, previous to Johnston's arrival, were comparatively small, and even after Johnston came, the combined army could not have exceeded forty thousand effective men. Since the battle we have reason to believe that Beauregard and Johnston have under their command much more than a hundred thousand men, enough for all practical purposes. It is not the want of men that has prevented an advance, but the lack of means for transportation, and the lack of food coupled with sickness.

Beauregard has been almost wholly without means of transportation for his vast army and proper food in sufficient quantity, as we have reason to believe, and men who fought the great fight of the 21st and came out of it without a scratch, were in no condition to do military duty for many days. With a little food of suitable quality, fatigued, worn down, they were in no condition to advance. In fact very many of them have been sick since the fight, and it is but the truth to say that they as well as the wounded have not received proper attention from the medical department, which, so far as we can learn, was organized in the very worst manner, if indeed it can be said to have any organization at all.

GEN. FREMONT AND THE SLAVES OF THE REBELS.—In his proclamation establishing martial law throughout Missouri, Gen. Fremont warns all rebels that on their conviction before a court martial, their property will be confiscated and their slaves, if any they have, are in advance declared to be free. This declaration will attract much attention as the introduction of a new policy in reference to the slaves of the rebels. It is a marked and bold step, and an evident improvement upon Gen. Butler's course in confiscating the slaves as contraband.

The effect of this declaration upon the rebels will be decided. The slaves are virtually already freed by Fremont's proclamation. This is a heavy blow, properly and opportunely aimed, and will act as a powerful preventive and sedative to those who are predisposed to, or laboring under the delirium of secession.—St. Louis Democrat.

Kerosene, oil when burning creates an invincible column of flame, which all the waters of Niagara would not quench when of such magnitude as furnished by the three hundred barrels lately consumed at the Duquesne depot of the Pennsylvania railroad in Pittsburg, Pa. A coal oil manufactory in Beach street, Philadelphia, took fire on Monday morning, and was very rapidly consumed with all its contents. The fire department met more than their match.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

Surveyor Andrews yesterday seized twenty-five vessels owned wholly or in most part by rebels, including eight ships and seven barks. Others will be seized to day. The value of vessels seized is over two millions.

The Commercial's special states that it is reported that there were several thousand rebels in the vicinity of Acquia Creek.

Washington is full of rumors of an advance by the rebels, some even stating that they had crossed the Potomac at Edward's Ferry.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.

The report that Hon. David Wilmot was hopelessly ill is incorrent. A letter from him dated Aug. 30th says that he is much better.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

The Post's special says the pickets of both armies are very close to each other on the other side of the Potomac.

The rebels had a dress parade this morning on Munson's Hill. Their artillery is not yet mounted. Carlisle, Asst. Dist. Atty. of District of Columbia, an intimate friend of Mayor Berret, resigned to-day.

Commercial's Despatches.—Our scouts report six rebel regiments at Fairfax Court House and six more further north.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

Eight more vessels were seized by the surveyor to day including the steamer Marion and the ship Trumbull, the latter was loaded and ready to sail for Antwerp.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Secretary Chase issued a patriotic appeal to the citizens of the United States in behalf of the national loan.

GALLIOPOLIS, Sept. 2.

A fight took place yesterday at Boone Court House, Virginia, between the rebels and three companys of Federal troops, which resulted in the route of the rebels with a loss of thirty killed and large number wounded and ten prisoners. None killed on our side, but six were wounded.—Our men burned the town.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Minister Adams writes that he does not think the British government contemplates any change of position so long as the blockade is continued.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.

Two barks principally owned in Charleston, S. C. were seized by the surveyor of this port to-day, under the confiscation act.

Secretary Seward and Cameron having returned, Attorney General Bates is the only member of the Cabinet out of this city.

During the past week reports have been prevalent here and elswhere, based on alleged private accounts of disastars to General Rosencranz, but it is certain that the war department has no such information.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Sept. 2.

The secessionists robbed the Charleston Branch Bank yesterday of $70,000—twenty-seven thousand in coin, the balance in bills.

Another flag of truce arrived to-day from Gen. Pillow, proposing an exchange of prisoners. Col. Wallace, in command at Bird's Point, will exchange twenty to-morrow.

Gen. Prentiss, at Cape Girardeau this morning, refused to command his column under Gen. Grant. Gen. Grant placed Col Cook in command, came down to Cairo and telegraphed the facts to Gen. Fremont. Up to 19 o'clock this evening no response had been received from the Major General.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Sept. 1.

Gen. Prentiss and staff arrived here this afternoon. His army of 6,000 men is at Jackson, ten miles west. What the next move will be, and when, must not be known at present. Hardee has left Greenville for the south. The rebels are reported concentrating at New Madrid, where they expect to make a big fight if attacked.

General Prentiss is superceded in this command by Gen. Grant. Prentiss has tendered his resignation to Gen. Fremont, but will, of course, continue to command the brigade till his resignation is accepted. Should he leave at present, it might embarrass the movements of the army.

The march of 75 miles from Ironton has been hard and fatiguing, but the troops bore it admirably. Not even a secession camp was found along the way. They had long since fled. A few rebels were captured, among which was a surgeon and a captain from Jeff. Thompson's army. One had in his pocket a furlough and the other a commission.

The secessionists between the Mississippi and Jonesboro, Ill., stopped a citizen today on suspicion of his being a messenger from Gen. Grant. They swear no more such messengers should pass. They will receive prompt attention.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

There is no change in the general status across the Potomac.

There has been skirmishing along the whole line. Four federals and ten confederates were killed. Among the latter was a mounted officer supposed to have been a general.

Eight regiments of confederates are known to be at Fairfax, five at Sangster's, and four at Occatink.

Among the regiments on Munson's Hill are the sixteenth and seventh Virginia, and the Louisiana zouaves.

A reconnoisance of the enemy's fortications at Munson's Hill discloses the fact that it is a work of great extent and strength, the earthern walls being eight to sixteen feet high, and of proportionate thickness.

The enemy were mounting siege guns on it to-day.

No cavalry or field artillery were seen today, showing that they are in use elsewhere.

The steamer Baltimore has retured from a cruise to Aquia Creek. The batteries, and men manning them, are still there; but no other troops were in sight.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.

The Democrat has advices direct from General Thompson's camp at Benton, Scott county, to the effect that all the rebels' heavy baggage at that and other points is being hastily removed to New Madrid, and that Thompson's and Hardee's forces would attempt to effect a junction, fall back on Sikeston, the terminus of the Cairo and Fulton Railroad, where it is supposed they would make a stand and give Gen. Prentiss battle with their combined strength.—Thompson's, Hardee's and Pillow's forces are estimated at 30,000.

Private dispatches announce that Provost Marshal McKinstry has been promoted to Brigadier General.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

The Arago arrived to-day. An officer of the returned expedition from Hatteras reports having seen near Hampton Roads a strange steamer towing what appeared to be a floating battery; believed it was intended to obstruct communication between Fort Monroe and Hampton.

The Courier Des Etats Unis has gone into new hands and will hereafter drop advocating the southern rebellion.

Tammany Hall last night elected a full delegation of loyalists to the Syracuse convention.

Times' Washington correspondent.—It has been determined by the government to hold the position at Cape Hatteras, although the original intention was to destroy and abandon the works, but now it will be made a rendezvous for army and naval forces.—This expedition is but the commencement of operations of which the navy department has made ample preparations and which will be rapidly developed.

The propeller Herbert arrived yesterday, having brought as a prize a small sloop captured the day previous. She is heavily loaded with revolvers, primers, and ammunition, including 10,000 pounds of percussion caps, blankets, surgical instruments, medicines, etc. She was worked by three men, one of whom escaped to the Virginia shore. The others were taken prisoners.—The sloop is said to have taken on the freight in Washington! The Herbert shelled the woods and beach near the Rappahanock without discovering any rebels.

The Herald's correspondent sends the following dispatch—A dispatch has been received here to-day from Richmond, via Louisville, announcing the death of Jeff Davis. This accounts for the display of flags at half mast from the rebel ramparts to-day.

The rebels at Munson's Hill are practicing their artillery in throwing balls and shell into the adjacent houses, compelling the inmates, chiefly women and children, to fly to the woods for safety.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

HALIFAX, Sept. 3.

The steamship Arabia, from Liverpool the 24th, via Queenstown the 25th, has arrived. In provisions there were small transactions. Cotton seed is being regularly shipped to India from Suez. Protestants are to be allowed to open schools in France. Italian soldiers arriving at Porte Wadole, while being refreshed, were set upon by the people and a number massacred. The troops retaliated the next day by destroying the whole town. A number of persons were killed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.

The mayor of Washington has appointed Jas. H. Bradley corporation attorney in place of Jas. M. Carlisle, resigned.

Heavy firing is heard on the Virginia side this morning, but reports are contradictory concerning it.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.

John W. Brown, arrested on Saturday on charge of selling arms to the tebels, was honorably acquitted this morning. No evidence whatever against him.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

Flour receipts 2,032 bbls. state, 5c better with only limited supply offering, other grades dull and unchanged, sales 9,100 bbls. at 4,30a4,35 super state, 4,60a4,80 extra state, 4,35 super western, 4,50a4,70 common to medium extra western, 5,10 shipping brands R. H. O. Canadian flour nominal. Rye flour steady at 2,30a3,80 for range of fine and superior. Receipts of wheat 41,680 bush.; market about 1c per bush. better, supply quite limited; sales 5,000 bush. at 1,06a1,08 Milwaukee club, 1,10a1,15 winter red western, 1,13 white western, 1,30 prime new white Michigan.

A Commendable Example.

The manner in which the Douglas brigade in Chicago was organised in Chicago is an example worthy of imitation. Fractions of more companies than were necessary to form the brigade had collected in camp, with full sets of commissioned officers, and the brigade was in danger of being delayed by the want of sufficient full companies. In this state of things the different companies were combined, and a new election of officers held. This threw out some who wore the shoulder straps and the gilt bars across them, but all submitted cheerfully and the brigade was organised. When the election of field officers took place, Col. Stuart, who had taken the lead in the organization of the brigade, was complimented by an election as colonel, but he declined the place, and Capt. W. H. Webb, of the regular army, was chosen to the first command. Stuart was then unanimously elected lieutenant colonel, and accepted the place. A major was elected by a unanimous vote, and the other offices filled to the complete acceptance of the men. The brigade will now start for St. Louis, in full numbers and excellent condition, as soon as its equipments can be procured.

This example we commend to the fractions of companies scattered throughout this county. Combine your companies, let the officers take the chances of a new election, and get into shape to be effective as soon as possible. If a new regiment is raised in this and Green county, there must be a united effort, and all personal or local feeling must be forgotten.

DRUM MAJOR EIGHTH REGIMENT.—Francis M. Keeley, of this city, has been appointed drum major of the 8th regiment, under command of Col. Murphy. He has formerly filled the same duty in the British service.

GEN. PRENTISS SUPERCEDED.—The reason given in the Chicago Tribune for the order depriving Gen. Prentiss of his command, and giving it to Gen. Grant, is that the former is not an educated soldier and the latter is. This can hardly be the sole ground, for Gen. Fremont himself is not a West Point officer, and has had considerable unpleasant experience with regular officers on that account. Gen. Prentiss no doubt is a good officer with a small body of men, but perhaps has shown himself unsuccessful in handling a number of regiments together.

A PATRIOTIC LETTER FROM A MASSACHUSETTS SHOEMAKER.—The secretary of the treasury has received the following letter, which shows how the people of the old Bay State regard the war. Its tone of earnest, hearty patriotism makes it worthy of being printed in letters of gold:

"I am a shoemaker of limited means, but I want to lend government this hundred dollars to assist it a little in the maintenance of its authority—its existence.

"The reason I send it to you rather than to invest it here is, I want to give 'Uncle Sam' all the profit; so I don't want any interest on it. All I want is, that you should send me a government note, promising to pay to me or bearer $100 on demand any time after the 26th of August, 1871, without interest. If times are hard with the government then, I will make a goodly abatement from this. If you are not empowered to invest the money in this way, invest it in the next way that will be the most profitable to the government.

"LONG LIFE TO UNCLE SAM.

"May the blessing of God make your efforts to save our beloved country successful. Respectfully yours, * *

"P. S. An early return will prevent apprehension that this did not reach you. Physical disability alone prevents my assisting as a volunteer."

ANECDOTE OF VALLANDINGHAM.—Previous to the attack on Sumter, the notorious dirt eater of Ohio made a boast that the first regiment that left Ohio to fight the south, would have to march over his dead body. It so happened that the Ohio 1st regiment went from his district, and marched past his house. When close upon it the regiment halted, and the colonel said:—"You are now to pass over the dead body of Vallandingham; let every man hold on to his—— nose," which they did till all had passed.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,
Well known to be the best for
Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,
Reduced to $70.
No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,
Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured expecially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.
Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.
☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the twofold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.
The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

Firing on the Virginia Side.

Our despatches daily bring us this news. It may result in a general engagement at any time. The rebles are throwing up immense earthworks on both sides of Munson's Hill, on the Leesburg turnpike, one mile from Baliey's Cross Roads. It is cleared land, and can be plainly seen from our out posts. They have a temporary battery to cover their working parties. It is not likely that Gen. McClellan will allow this to go on a great while, and the firing to-day may be in consequence of his disputing their progress.

The Importance of Butler's Victory.

Just at this time nothing could be more opportune than the victory of Gen. Butler on the North Carolina coast. It gives renewed spirit to the Union cause everywhere, and we have not a doubt has promoted enlistments very materially throughout the country. Men feel a confidence that beneath the impenetrable cloud which now envelopes military affairs, that the administration is at work. We hope to see more results of a like importance before many days.

The victory is important also because it removes one of the principal difficulties in enforcing the blockade, which it is the interest of certain foreign nations to break up if possible. That portion of the North Carolina coast which is now under effective control, is just becoming dangerous to large vessels, on account of the approach of the season of storms. It is peculiar in its formation, making it the scene of more wrecks than any other point on our maritime borders. For hundreds of miles along the coast of North Carolina there is a series of sand bar islands, leaving a basin of water between them and the main shore. This sand bar has several inlets, but the principal one is Hatteras, where the rebels had constructed two forts which have been taken and occupied, together with the light house. Within the basins and sounds to which the Hatteras Inlet leads, the rebels could safely moor their privateers, while they would keep a look out, giving signals to their piratical crafts to come out when a good prize was passing at sea. It is the key of Albemarle Sound, which reaches up near and back of Norfolk, and of Pamlico Sound, extending into North Carolina, upon which are the towns of Newburn and Washington. The possession of Hatteras Inlet, the rebel engineer, whose report was found, says, "is a station second in importance only to Fortress Monroe," and this estimate is, doubtless, not overrated. Why it has never been effectually fortified by the government is strange, considering that it can be made to control so extensive a line of sea coast, as well as the trade of the interior.

THE REPORTED DEATH OF JEFF. DAVIS.—The report of the death of Davis is neither confirmed nor denied by the telegraphic dispatches of this afternoon. We do not rely much upon it, as the rebels are in the habit of manufacturing falsehoods of this kind, for their own amusement, or to effect some ulterior purpose. The health of the rebel chief has been bad for many years, and the wear and tear, physical and mental, for the last few months have been considerable upon a frail constitution, not to say anything of the pains of a guilty conscience, which the most desperate villain, it is said, does not lose entirely. If he is dead there may be a rebellion in the lower dominions before many weeks, as it is believed that Jeff. Davis would at any time "rather reign in hell than serve in Heaven."

The supervisors of Wood county have voted to the families of volunteers, three dollars per month for the wife, and two dollars per month for each child.

☞ We notice in an Albany (N. Y.) paper that Mr. Levi Cass, formerly principal of our High School, has established a school of the same kind in that city.

Honorable Andrew Johnson was seranaded in Cincinnati on the 1st. He made a speech to the large crowd assembled.

MR. HOLT IN BOSTON.

ANOTHER NOBLE SPEECH FROM THE KENTUCKY PATRIOT.

BOSTON, Aug. 29, 1861.

The citizens of Boston gave expression, on Tuesday evening, to the sentiments of high respect which they entertained for the Hon. Joseph Holt, individually, and as a son of the noble state of Kentucky, by a very enthusiastic demonstration in front of the Tremont House.

Mr. Holt descended the steps about 9½ o'clock, with the committee of arrangements and his appearance was the signal for enthusiastic applause. The Hon. Edward Everett then welcomed Mr. Holt to Boston.

At the conclusion of Mr. Everett's remarks, cheers were given for Mr. Holt and for the state of Kentucky, with great enthusiasm. After the band had performed a patriotic air, Mr. Holt stepped forward, and was received with warm applause He said:

SPEECH OF MR. HOLT.

FELLOW CITIZENS: I came to Boston, as do many American travelers, not merely to look upon the city beautiful in itself—upon its monuments, and upon these magnificent landscapes in which, as a jewel, it is set—but also so to revive, if haply I might, the glow of my patriotism amid the thrilling associations that cluster around this cradle of the Revolution. [Cheers and cries of "good"] Here are gardens of memories which can never never lose their fragrances; here are altars whose fires, though kindled in behalf of human rights nearly a century ago, have waxed only the brighter for the years through which they have burned. No true son of the republic can press the soil of Bunker Hill without having his veneration for your great ancestors deepened and exalted, and without feeling his vows of devotion to the country strengthened and renewed. [Cheers.]

I am thankful for that most earnest, that most eloquent, that most flattering recognition, which in your name has been given, of my fidelity to our common country, under circumstances of peril and of trial. Most grateful, too, am I for that friendly, that kindly allusion to my native state, Kentucky, [cheers for Kentucky,] whose star, so long obscured by the baleful influence of unfaithful men, is now preparing to shine forth in the strength and luster of other days. [Applause, and cries of "good," "good."]

Kentucky has assumed her present position under no prompting of passion, but calmly and deliberately, after careful review of the whole field of controversy, and in view of all the gloom and perils that encompass the Union, she now avows she loves it still, and will cling to it amid its sorrows, as she has clung to it in the days of its strength and its glory. [Cheers.] That which she has so nobly declared from the ballot-box, it is now her manifest duty to make good upon the battle-field, [immense applause;] and that duty, already begun, will, I firmly believe, be faithfully performed upon the meeting of her legislature, which takes place but a few days hence. Full, full will be the measure of my joy, when I shall behold the patriot soldiers of Massachusetts and the patriot soldiers of Kentucky meeting upon the same fields of danger, and with the grasp of their fraternal hands, rebuking those traitorous men who, through long years, have striven to render them aliens and enemies to each other.

Fellow citizens, I am gratified to say that during the somewhat extended tour that I have just made, I have nowhere found the public voice faint, or the public voice faltering, in reference to the vigorous prosecution of this war, until the stars and stripes shall float on every flagstaff from which they have been torn. [Applause.] Nowhere have I heard the word COMPROMISE—[cheers and cries of "good," "good,"]—a word which can now be uttered only by disloyal lips, or by those speaking openly and directly in the interests of the rebellion. [Cheers, and a voice—"That's the kind of talk."] So long as the rebels have arms in their hands, there is nothing to compromise [cheers]—nothing but the honor of the country and the integrity of the government; and who, but he who is ready to fill a coward's grave, is prepared for submission to such humiliation as this?

Fellow citizens, It cannot be disguised that we stand at this moment confronted by great national calamities. Eleven members of our Union are in open, and thus far, successful revolt; and an army, it may be of a hundred thousand men, breathing vengeance and slaughter, is hovering upon our lines and menacing the safety of Washington. From this pressing peril no valiant resolves, no brilliant declamation, no fervid prophesyings can possibly deliver us. Nothing but the sword, wielded by skillful and heroic hands, can now save this country from the last catastrophe that can befall a free people. The enemy has been tested, and we can no longer underrate either his power or his recklessness in battle.

Let no man cherish the belief that since this rebellion is the cause of crime, that therefore it will be the less daringly maintained. History has recorded, for our instruction and admiration, that Cataline and his co-conspirators fell with their faces to the enemy; and so probably will fall the rebel leaders of the south. The more earnest the more prompt, the more united the efforts that are now made, the briefer will be the struggle. All delay, all seeming hesitancy, all discussion, will strengthen the rebellion itself, is fraught with incalculable danger and mischief to ourselves.

If, however, from any cause, this contest is to be prolonged, we must not seek to conceal from ourselves its possible consequences; but even now, in advance, we should bravely and calmly look the worst of them in the face. Your ships may have to furl their sails in many a sea, and the grass may spring up in marts heretofore pressed by the busy feet of commerce; wide spread bankruptcy may possibly ensue, and the wail of sorrow may go up, not only from stricken households and communities, but also from cities and states, over the brave and true men who have laid down their lives upon the altar of their country. But our institutions are well worth all these sacrifices which we may or can possibly make for their preservation. All that we are and all that we have are the fruits of these institutions; and all that we may now generously devote to their safety in this hour of their extreme peril, if we are successful, they will give back to us and our children's children, increased a hundred, nay, a thousand fold.

But even now, in the very shadow of these threatened disasters, even this night and this hour, we could have peace. We could have peace by laying down our necks, our country and our flag in the dust beneath the feet of remorseless traitors. [Loud cries of "Never," "Never!"] But how can we do this, seeing that the graves of our fathers are yet with us, and that Bunker Hill yet speaks to us with voices which will not and cannot be stifled? [Cheers.]

If we falter, we fail; and not only will Washington, your capitol, be subjugated and sacked, but your cities and your fields will be swept over by an army carrying in its train desolations scarcely surpassed since the Goths stabbed their steeds in the palaces of the Cæsars. The fiendish tone of the southern press, its exultant threatenings, and the events which have already transpired, fully justify me in this declaration. If, therefore, we think of our lands and gold, of our merchandise and pleasant homes, or even of the blood that courses in our veins, in contrast with the integrity of our government, we are lost; we shall perish suddenly, irretrieveably, and ignominiously. But if true to ourselves, as I verily believe we will be, if true to the kindling memories of the past, and to the grandeur of our mission as a people, your armies will assuredly triumph; and that triumph the Union sentiment of the south will render complete and enduring [applause,] and thus, out of all this national turmoil, and battle, and blood-shed, and wringing anguish, there will in the end arise a future for our country, bright as that rainbow which spans the mists that mount above the tortured hell of Niagara's waters. For that future, that bow of promise and of beauty may well be accepted as the appropriate emblem. [Applause.]

One of the most fearful obstacles which has been encountered in the successful prosecution of this war is the disloyalty found in the midst of us. [Cries of "that's so."] This is especially true in relation to Washington and the border states; but it is in a great degree true everywhere, and to this is traceable much of that discouragement under which the nation is now suffering.

The country is now rejoicing in those bold and decided measures which the President is taking to subdue this fatal source of weakness and defeat. [Cheers.] It is in vain that the stalwart arms and hearts of this great nation toil at the pumps, so long as men are kept on board with augers in their pockets, who at every stolen opportunity are boring holes in the bottom of the noble ship on which we are embarked. [Applause.]

Fellow-citizens, the thought of dismembering this Union, which has been the source of all our strength and all our joys as a nation, can be entertained by no true man. Dismemberment would involve the abasement of all which we, as Americans, have so long and so justly been proud, and the complete ruin of the grand inheritance which we have received from our fathers, and which it is our duty to transmit undiminished in its blessings to our descendants. It would conduct us from places of prosperity and power to hovels of wretchedness and to graves of dishonor.

When the wise man of old, sitting in judgment upon the rival claims of two mothers to the possession of the same child, decreed that it should be cut in twain, and that one half should be given to the one claimant and the other half to the other, it was the false mother who accepted and exulted in the judgment, while the true mother turned away with horror, preferring to commit the life of her offspring to the keeping of even her own enemy, rather than that it should thus perish. The filial and the maternal instincts are in this regard the same. The man who is willing that this prosperous and free country shall be severed by the sword of treason now suspended over it, may have been born upon American soil, but he has no American heart in his bosom. [Cheers, and cries of "good."] The true son of the republic, like the true mother, turns away from the proposal with indignation and abhorrence. [Great cheering.]

GEN. ROSENCRANS'S ARMY.—The Clarksburg correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says (Aug. 30):

The southern division of the rebel Western Virginia army is supposed to be gradually pushing its way beyond Summersville in the hope of "surrounding" Cox's force at Gauley and regaining the Kanawha. Meanwhile the lines of the two hostile armies at the Cheat Mountain Gaps are gradually approaching and the pickets are now almost within gun shot of each other. Of course nothing would please Lee better than to have Wise create a diversion on the Kanawha that would induce Gen. Rosencrans to withdraw his forces from the Gaps, and so leave a weak point exposed to the watchful enemy. Gen. Lee, it is supposed, will be hardly gratified. But it must be seen that the alarm given in this correspondence some time ago, as to the imperative demand for troops here, was not given a day too soon. We may suffer yet, because the people at home have been and are too skeptical on so vital a point.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal says of Mr. Potter's labors as chairman of the committee for clearing the departments of secessionists:

Mr. Potter is doing the country good service, and it is wholly a work of patriotism, for congressmen being paid a salary, he gets no extra pay for services in the recess of congress, and is not even allowed anything for extra expenses in Washington, and in traveling about the country on public business.

WHY THE SOUTHERN ARMY DO NOT MOVE.—The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel, of the 18th has the following:

It is well known now that General Beauregard's forces at Manassas, previous to Johnston's arrival, were comparatively small, and even after Johnston came, the combined army could not have exceeded forty thousand effective men. Since the battle we have reason to believe that Beauregard and Johnston have under their command much more than a hundred thousand men, enough for all practical purposes. It is not the want of men that has prevented an advance, but the lack of means for transportation, and the lack of food coupled with sickness.

Beauregard has been almost wholly without means of transportation for his vast army and proper food in sufficient quantity, as we have reason to believe, and men who fought the great fight of the 21st and came out of it without a scratch, were in no condition to do military duty for many days. With a little food of suitable quality, fatigued, worn down, they were in no condition to advance. In fact very many of them have been sick since the fight, and it is but the truth to say that they as well as the wounded have not received proper attention from the medical department, which, so far as we can learn, was organized in the very worst manner, if indeed it can be said to have any organization at all.

GEN. FREMONT AND THE SLAVES OF THE REBELS.—In his proclamation establishing martial law throughout Missouri, Gen. Fremont warns all rebels that on their conviction before a court martial, their property will be confiscated and their slaves, if any they have, are in advance declared to be free. This declaration will attract much attention as the introduction of a new policy in reference to the slaves of the rebels. It is a marked and bold step, and an evident improvement upon Gen. Butler's course in confiscating the slaves as contraband.

The effect of this declaration upon the rebels will be decided. The slaves are virtually already freed by Fremont's proclamation. This is a heavy blow, properly and opportunely aimed, and will act as a powerful preventive and sedative to those who are predisposed to, or laboring under the delirium of secession.—St. Louis Democrat.

Kerosene, oil when burning creates an invincible column of flame, which all the waters of Niagara would not quench when of such magnitude as furnished by the three hundred barrels lately consumed at the Duquesne depot of the Pennsylvania railroad in Pittsburg, Pa. A coal oil manufactory in Beach street, Philadelphia, took fire on Monday morning, and was very rapidly consumed with all its contents. The fire department met more than their match.

The Post's special says the pickets of both armies are very close to each other on the other side of the Potomac.

The rebels had a dress parade this morning on Munson's Hill. Their artillery is not yet mounted. Carlisle, Asst. Dist. Atty. of District of Columbia, an intimate friend of Mayor Berret, resigned to-day.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Secretary Chase issued a patriotic appeal to the citizens of the United States in behalf of the national loan.

GALLIOPOLIS, Sept. 2.

A fight took place yesterday at Boone Court House, Virginia, between the rebels and three companys of Federal troops, which resulted in the route of the rebels with a loss of thirty killed and large number wounded and ten prisoners. None killed on our side, but six were wounded.—Our men burned the town.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Minister Adams writes that he does not think the British government contemplates any change of position so long as the blockade is continued.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.

Two barks principally owned in Charleston, S. C. were seized by the surveyor of this port to-day, under the confiscation act.

Secretary Seward and Cameron having returned, Attorney General Bates is the only member of the Cabinet out of this city.

During the past week reports have been prevalent here and elswhere, based on alleged private accounts of disastars to General Rosencranz, but it is certain that the war department has no such information.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Sept. 2.

The secessionists robbed the Charleston Branch Bank yesterday of $70,000—twenty-seven thousand in coin, the balance in bills.

Another flag of truce arrived to-day from Gen. Pillow, proposing an exchange of prisoners. Col. Wallace, in command at Bird's Point, will exchange twenty to-morrow.

Gen. Prentiss, at Cape Girardeau this morning, refused to command his column under Gen. Grant. Gen. Grant placed Col. Cook in command, came down to Cairo and telegraphed the facts to Gen. Fremont. Up to 19 o'clock this evening no response had been received from the Major General.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Sept. 1.

Gen. Prentiss and staff arrived here this afternoon. His army of 6,000 men is at Jackson, ten miles west. What the next move will be, and when, must not be known at present. Hardee has left Greenville for the south. The rebels are reported concentrating at New Madrid, where they expect to make a big fight if attacked.

General Prentiss is superceded in this command by Gen. Grant. Prentiss has tendered his resignation to Gen. Fremont, but will, of course, continue to command the brigade till his resignation is accepted. Should he leave at present, it might embarrass the movements of the army.

The march of 75 miles from Ironton has been hard and fatiguing, but the troops bore it admirably. Not even a secession camp was found along the way. They had long since fled. A few rebels were captured, among which was a surgeon and a captain from Jeff. Thompson's army. One had in his pocket a furlough and the other a commission.

The secessionists between the Mississippi and Jonesboro, Ill., stopped a citizen to-day on suspicion of his being a messenger from Gen. Grant. They swear no more such messengers should pass. They will receive prompt attention.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

There is no change in the general status across the Potomac.

There has been skirmishing along the whole line. Four federals and ten confederates were killed. Among the latter was a mounted officer supposed to have been a general.

Eight regiments of confederates are known to be at Fairfax, five at Sangster's, and four at Occatink.

Among the regiments on Munson's Hill are the sixteenth and seventh Virginia, and the Louisiana zouaves.

A reconnoisance of the enemy's forticatiоns at Munson's Hill discloses the fact that it is a work of great extent and strength, the earthern walls being eight to sixteen feet high, and of proportionate thickness.

The enemy were mounting siege guns on it to-day.

No cavalry or field artillery were seen to-day, showing that they are in use elsewhere.

The steamer Baltimore has retured from a cruise to Aquia Creek. The batteries, and men manning them, are still there; but no other troops were in sight.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.

The Democrat has advices direct from General Thompson's camp at Benton, Scott county, to the effect that all the rebels' heavy baggage at that and other points is being hastily removed to New Madrid, and that Thompson's and Hardee's forces would attempt to effect a junction, fall back on Sikeston, the terminus of the Cairo and Fulton Railroad, where it is supposed they would make a stand and give Gen. Prentiss battle with their combined strength.—Thompson's, Hardee's and Pillow's forces are estimated at 30,000.

Private dispatches announce that Provost Marshal McKinstry has been promoted to Brigadier General.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

The Arago arrived to-day. An officer of the returned expedition from Hatteras reports having seen near Hampton Roads a strange steamer towing what appeared to be a floating battery; believed it was intended to obstruct communication between Fort Monroe and Hampton.

The Courier Des Etats Unis has gone into new hands and will hereafter drop advocating the southern rebellion.

Tammany Hall last night elected a full delegation of loyalists to the Syracuse convention.

Times' Washington correspondent.—It has been determined by the government to hold the position at Cape Hatteras, although the original intention was to destroy and abandon the works, but now it will be made a rendezvous for army and naval forces.—This expedition is but the commencement of operations of which the navy department has made ample preparations and which will be rapidly developed.

The propeller Herbert arrived yesterday, having brought as a prize a small sloop captured the day previous. She is heavily loaded with revolvers, primers, and ammunition, including 10,000 pounds of percussion caps, blankets, surgical instruments, medicines, etc. She was worked by three men, one of whom escaped to the Virginia shore. The others were taken prisoners.—The sloop is said to have taken on the freight in Washington! The Herbert shelled the woods and beach near the Rappahanock without discovering any rebels.

The Herald's correspondent sends the following dispatch—A dispatch has been received here to-day from Richmond, via Louisville, announcing the death of Jeff Davis. This accounts for the display of flags at half mast from the rebel ramparts to-day.

The rebels at Munson's Hill are practicing their artillery in throwing balls and shell into the adjacent houses, compelling the inmates, chiefly women and children, to fly to the woods for safety.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

HALIFAX, Sept. 3.

The steamship Arabia, from Liverpool the 24th, via Queenstown the 25th, has arrived. In provisions there were small transactions. Cotton seed is being regularly shipped to India from Suez. Protestants are to be allowed to open schools in France. Italian soldiers arriving at Porte Wadole, while being refreshed, were set upon by the people and a number massacred. The troops retaliated the next day by destroying the whole town. A number of persons were killed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.

The mayor of Washington has appointed Jas. H. Bradley corporation attorney in place of Jas. M. Carlisle, resigned.

Heavy firing is heard on the Virginia side this morning, but reports are contradictory concerning it.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.

John W. Brown, arrested on Saturday on charge of selling arms to the tebels, was honorably acquitted this morning. No evidence whatever against him.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

Flour receipts 2,032 bbls. state, 5c better with only limited supply offering, other grades dull and unchanged, sales 9,400 bbls. at 4,30a4,35 super state, 4,60a4,80 extra state, 4,35 super western, 4,50a4,70 common to medium extra western, 5,10 shipping brands R. H. O. Canadian flour nominal. Rye flour steady at 2,30a3,80 for range of fine and superior. Receipts of wheat 44,680 bush.; market about 1c per bush. better, supply quite limited; sales 5,000 bush. at 1,06a1,08 Milwaukee club, 1,10a1,15 winter red western, 1,13 white western, 1,30 prime new white Michigan.

A Commendable Example.

The manner in which the Douglas brigade in Chicago was organised in Chicago is an example worthy of imitation. Fractions of more companies than were necessary to form the brigade had collected in camp, with full sets of commissioned officers, and the brigade was in danger of being delayed by the want of sufficient full companies. In this state of things the different companies were combined, and a new election of officers held. This threw out some who wore the shoulder straps and the gilt bars across them, but all submitted cheerfully and the brigade was organised. When the election of field officers took place, Col. Stuart, who had taken the lead in the organization of the brigade, was complimented by an election as colonel, but he declined the place, and Capt. W. H. Webb, of the regular army, was chosen to the first command. Stuart was then unanimously elected lieutenant colonel, and accepted the place. A major was elected by a unanimous vote, and the other offices filled to the complete acceptance of the men. The brigade will now start for St. Louis, in full numbers and excellent condition, as soon as its equipments can be procured.

This example we commend to the fractions of companies scattered throughout this county. Combine your companies, let the officers take the chances of a new election, and get into shape to be effective as soon as possible. If a new regiment is raised in this and Green county, there must be a united effort, and all personal or local feeling must be forgotten.

DRUM MAJOR EIGHTH REGIMENT.—Francis M. Keeley, of this city, has been appointed drum major of the 8th regiment, under command of Col. Murphy. He has formerly filled the same duty in the British service.

GEN. PRENTISS SUPERCEDED.—The reason given in the Chicago Tribune for the order depriving Gen. Prentiss of his command, and giving it to Gen. Grant, is that the former is not an educated soldier and the latter is. This can hardly be the sole ground, for Gen. Fremont himself is not a West Point officer, and has had considerable unpleasant experience with regular officers on that account. Gen. Prentiss no doubt is a good officer with a small body of men, but perhaps has shown himself unsuccessful in handling a number of regiments together.

A PATRIOTIC LETTER FROM A MASSACHUSETTS SHOEMAKER.—The secretary of the treasury has received the following letter, which shows how the people of the old Bay State regard the war. Its tone of earnest, hearty patriotism makes it worthy of being printed in letters of gold:

"I am a shoemaker of limited means, but I want to lend government this hundred dollars to assist it a little in the maintenance of its authority—its existence.

"The reason I send it to you rather than to invest it here is, I want to give 'Uncle Sam' all the profit; so I don't want any interest on it. All I want is, that you should send me a government note, promising to pay to me or bearer $100 on demand any time after the 26th of August, 1871, without interest. If times are hard with the government then, I will make a goodly abatement from this. If you are not empowered to invest the money in this way, invest it in the next way that will be the most profitable to the government.

"LONG LIFE TO UNCLE SAM.

"May the blessing of God make your efforts to save our beloved country successful. Respectfully yours, * *

"P. S. An early return will prevent apprehension that this did not reach you. Physical disability alone prevents my assisting as a volunteer."

ANECDOTE OF VALLANDINGHAM.—Previous to the attack on Sumter, the notorious dirt eater of Ohio made a boast that the first regiment that left Ohio to fight the south, would have to march over his dead body. It so happened that the Ohio 1st regiment went from his district, and marched past his house. When close upon it the regiment halted, and the colonel said:—"You are now to pass over the dead body of Vallandingham; let every man hold on to his——nose," which they did till all had passed.

GREAT REDUCTION

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Departure of the Fire Zouaves for Camp Randall.

The Fire Zouaves, Capt. Wm. B. Britton, left this city, on the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien Railway at 11 o'clock A. M., for Camp Randall, Madison, to take their place in the Eighth Regiment. According to the arrangements made last night the fire department, under the command of James Hemming, acting chief engineer, and the Zouave Cadets, Lieut. Murray, commanding, formed on the court house square at half past ten o'clock, in the following order:

1s.—Martial Band.
2d.—Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2.
3d—Washington Engine Co. No. 3.
4th.—Janesville Zouave Cadets.

The procession then marched up Main to Milwaukee street, up Milwaukee street to the depot, where a large crowd of our citizens had gathered to bid the Fire Zouaves farewell. The train was waiting and consequently all other arrangements were suspended, the procession breaking ranks and gathering around the cars to shake hands with their friends and companions who are now in the service of their country. Soon the train was under motion and then nine cheers were given for the brave Fire Zouaves by the whole crowd. This company is composed principally of the active members of the fire department of this city, the chief engineer at their head. They will do noble work wherever their lot may be cast.

Soldier's Pay.

The following are the acts of congress in relation to the pay of volunteers:

An act to increase the pay of privates in the regular army, and of the volunteers in the service of the United States, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled,

That the pay of the privates in the regular army and volunteers in the service of the United States, be thirteen dollars per month for three years, from and after the passage of this act, and until otherwise fixed by law.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted That the provisions of the act entitled "An act for the relief of Ohio and other volunteers," approved July 24th, 1861, be, and the same are, hereby extended to all volunteers mustered into the service of the United States, whether for one, two or three years, or for or during the war. * *

Approved August 6th, 1861.

The act referred to in section 2 above, is as follows:

An act for the relief of the Ohio and other volunteers.

Whereas, the war department has decided that the term of service of the ninety days' volunteers, called out under the act of 1795, commenced on the day when they were actually sworn into the service of the United States: And, whereas, the troops of the United States from the state of Ohio were not sworn into service until some days after their organization and acceptance as companies, by the governor of said state, and that for such period, under existing laws, no payment can be made. Therefore

Be it enacted, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the proper disbursing officer, compute and pay to the said volunteers, compensation from the day of their organization and acceptance as companies by the governor of the state of Ohio, as aforesaid, until the expiration of their term of service.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted That when the militia of other states are situated similarly with those of Ohio, the war department pay them according to the provisions of the foregoing section.

Approved July 24th, 1861.

It will be seen by these acts, that the pay received by the volunteers from the United States, is thirteen dollars per month from the time they are accepted by the governor.

In addition to this, the state of Wisconsin pays "To all volunteers of Wisconsin, having families dependant on them for support," the sum of five dollars per month, to be drawn by such families.

SWORDS ARRIVED.—The swords for the officers of the Fire Zouave company have been received, and may be seen to-day and to-morrow at S. C. Spaulding's jewelry store.

☞ E. V. Wilson will lecture at the Court Room this evening.

THE NATIONAL FAST.

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Whereas, A joint committee of both houses of congress has waited on the President of the United States, and requested him to recommend a day of Public Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting, to be observed by the People of the United States with religious solemnities, and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God, for the safety and welfare of these states, His blessing on their arms, and a speedy restoration of peace:

And whereas, It is fit and becoming in all people at all times to acknowledge and revere the Supreme Government of God to bow in humble submission to His chastisements, to confess and deplore their sins and transgressions in the full conviction that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to pray with all fervency and contrition for the pardon of their past offences, and for a blessing upon their present and prospective action:

And whereas, Our beloved country, once, by the blessing of God, united, prosperous and happy, is now afflicted with faction and civil war, and it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation and in sorrowful remembrance of our own faults and crimes as a nation and as individuals, to humble ourselves before Him, and pray for his mercy—to pray that we may be spared further punishment, though justly deserved; that our arms may be blessed and made effectual for the re-establishment of law, order and peace throughout our country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and religious liberty, earned, under His guidance and blessing, by the labors and sufferings of our fathers, may be restored in all its original excellence: Therefore

I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, do appoint the last Thursday in September next, as a day of Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting for all the people of the Nation, and I do most earnestly recommend to all the people, and especially to all ministers and teachers of religion of all denominations, and to all heads of families—to observe and keep that day according to their several creeds and modes of worship in all humility, and with all religious solemnity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation may ascend to the Throne of Grace, and bring down plentiful blessings upon our own country.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be affixed, this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-sixth.

By the President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP KALARAMA,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27th, 1861.

DEAR BROTHER:—I have been trying to get time to write you as to our camp life, &c., together with the news of the day. We are at the above named place yet. To-day has been a sort of extra day. We were reviewed by Gen. McClellan and staff. There are seven regiments quartered here, under Brigadier General King. We have the right of the brigade. They passed in review to day as follows: beginning with ours, the 5th Wisconsin, 25th Pennsylvania, 79th New York, 19th Indiana, 6th Wisconsin, and 2d New York Fire Zouaves. The 2d Wisconsin joined our brigade to-day, but they did not arrive in time to pass in review. They are now encamped by the side of us; and the boys are having a big time here visiting with each other. The 2d Wisconsin boys look as though they had seen hard times, and they have no doubt. Several of them show good evidence of the battle by the wounds and sores. Some wounds have already healed up that were really frightful; but take them all in all they feel good, and ready and aching for another fight. The regiments to-day all made a fine show. There was one little incident of the Fire Zouaves that was the style of the New York firemen in full. One of them, as they were just past the reviewing staff, stepped up to Gen. McClellan and wanted to shake hands with him. The General shook hands with him, and the Zouave stepped back one side, folded up his arms, and put an extra touch on his hat by putting it on one side of his head, and with his peculiar style, after viewing the General, exclaimed to him quite coolly, "General, you do me proud!" The General was completely taken by surprise at the style, and let Mr. private Zouave pass.

We were visited to-day by the old gentleman, Mr. Alden and his good wife. They served us in the same way that the good people of Janesville did, when we passed through on our way here. I shall long remember the good people of Janesville.

Well, Mrs. Alden brought us a fine lot of really good edibles in the shape of the best pies, cakes, sandwiches and the like, that I ever eat. You can bet that they were not rejected by us, although we have been strangers to "nick nacks" since we left Wisconsin, but we soon renewed our old acquaintances, and filled our special Haversacks in an amazing short time, and mighty thankful for the favor, too.

To-night we received special orders to see that every man had forty rounds of buck and ball cartridges in his box, and Lieut. Clum and I have just got through issuing cartridges to fill their boxes up where they have used out of the original. We are under orders to be ready to march at any minute, but we may lie here two months for all I know. I am not at all alarmed at yet, I think we will stay here at least two weeks yet. We are all expecting to get paid off the first of September. We are all in want of the one thing cash, and I for one am about dead broke.

We are living a camp life in good earnest. I have not slept on a bed since I left Wisconsin, and in fact on nothing else but the ground, with my blankets over and under me, and I can sleep sound, too, at that.—My health is first rate. I have been well all the while as yet since we left. We have six men in the hospital, and four in their tents, that are sick. Pepper is in Baltimore. Glover, Helms, Newton, Mitchell and Olson are in the hospital here. Wilsie, Waggoner, Dutton and Hodson are in their tents. We have some six or seven others who are grunting but not seriously sick. The remainder are all well.

We get no news here as to what troops are arriving, only as we find out by actual count, and the country is full of them. You can hardly find a place that will afford room enough for a regiment to encamp but there is one on it. All is war here, or preparing for it. It is certainly sickening to see this beautiful country laid waste, as it is being at this very time. We are encamped in one of the pleasantest places I ever saw. Gen. King's headquarters are just between us and the city, in an old country seat. You can stand in the door and see the city, the capitol, the president's house, and all the public buildings; in fact it is the pleasantest place I ever saw, but it is going to ruin as fast as it can.

I have sent you several papers, and will send you several more. We get now and then a Gazette, but not half as many as we would like. They are the favorite paper with us.

I should like to hear from you as often as convenient. Our conveniences for writing are not first rate. I am sitting on a camp stool, writing on a box cover. The box is filled with cartridges. Clum is doing the same thing. Give my compliments to your wife and all inquiring friends. It is 11 o'clock and I will close.

From your brother, JAS. MILLS.

For the Daily Gazette.

Who Will Stay at Home?

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In view of the immense proportions that this war is assuming, and the absolute necessity for a vigorous and determined effort on the part of the loyal states to bring it to a speedy and successful termination, permit me to suggest that it cannot be done without fighting, and that we cannot do that successfully without men.

Now, whose duty is it to step forward and fill up the ranks? The rule laid down by Gen. Jackson, at New Orleans, that the owners of the cotton should defend it, is a correct one, and applies to every species of property as well as cotton. More than ninety-nine hundredths of our laws, and the cost of enforcing them, are made for the protection of property alone. This war, on our side, is for the maintenance of the laws and the protection of property, as well as for that of human liberty. Property owners have a double duty to perform. They have property as well as liberty to defend, and the exigency of the times imperatively demands that they come forward now, and take their place in the front ranks. Hitherto those who have had the least at stake have shown the most patriotism, and because they have been the most patriotic, they have had the privilege of doing nearly all the fighting; but it can't be permitted any longer; there are not enough of patriotic poor men to do the work alone, but everybody, all classes, must take hold or we fail. We must come forward as one man, and the question is not, or should not be, Who will go? but "Who shall stay at home?"

Both humanity and economy demand that this war shall be brought to a close this winter. It can be done if we will it. A million of men may be necessary; if so, let a million be raised. Out of 60,000 voters, Arkansas puts 20,000 in the field. If the loyal states do anything like that, this rebellion can be squelched in six months. Send a few thousand at a time, and they will be sacrificed, and the work will not be done. These are times that try men's souls, and those who show themselves true men, and have the courage to meet the foe and conquer a peace will be held in eternal remembrance, whilst the cowards who refuse to accept their share of the responsibility and the danger will be consigned to eternal and merited infamy. A mark of Cain-like reproach will be fixed upon them, and all confidence and preferment will be denied them forever.

Now is the time, gallant men of Rock, to win laurels and save your country.—Don't hang back for a colonel's, a major's, or a captain's commission, or for an appointment as commissary, or quarter-master or good Samaritan. We can't all be officers, nor have good places to make money; but the ranks must be filled. The ranks is the place, step in; it is the post of duty, as well as of honor, just now, and everything most dear to a man—country, liberty, honor, and that other thing which is dearer to cowards than all, property—is at stake. Come on, then, one and all; let none think to avoid the responsibility, or hang back because he has a large farm, or lives in a fine house, or owns banks, mills, bonds and mortgages. You are just the ones to go; your wives and families have something to support them if you fall, and will not need assistance in your absence; besides, a decent pride should induce you to take a fair share of the danger, and not shirk it all on the poor devils who have hitherto borne the brunt of the fight.

There are about 7,500 voters in Rock county; the same ratio as Arkansas would raise 2,500 fighting men. We have raised about six hundred men already, and if we raise 1,000 more, which we should do, we will then have done but little more than half as well as they. Now, can't old Rock, glorious, patriotic, boastful Rock, do more than half as much for law and liberty as Arkansas does for despotism and slavery? She can, and I shall be both disappointed and mortified if she does not. Fall into the ranks, then, everyone, and let us designate who shall stay at home, and let the others march on to victory and duty.

ON the first day of August in every year it is usual for us to get up our closing sale for the season, and having been induced to purchase very largely owing to the low price of imported goods in the early part of the summer, it will be necessary for us, in order to make room for our fall purchases, to dispose of at least

Our entire stock of

Departure of the Fire Zouaves for Camp Randall.

The Fire Zouaves, Capt. Wm. B. Britton, left this city, on the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien Railway at 11 o'clock A. M., for Camp Randall, Madison, to take their place in the Eighth Regiment. According to the arrangements made last night the fire department, under the command of James Hemming, acting chief engineer, and the Zouave Cadets, Lieut. Murray, commanding, formed on the court house square at half past ten o'clock, in the following order:

1s.—Martial Band.
2d.—Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2.
3d—Washington Engine Co. No. 3.
4th.—Janesville Zouave Cadets.

The procession then marched up Main to Milwaukee street, up Milwaukee street to the depot, where a large crowd of our citizens had gathered to bid the Fire Zouaves farewell. The train was waiting and consequently all other arrangements were suspended, the procession breaking ranks and gathering around the cars to shake hands with their friends and companions who are now in the service of their country. Soon the train was under motion and then nine cheers were given for the brave Fire Zouaves by the whole crowd. This company is composed principally of the active members of the fire department of this city, the chief engineer at their head. They will do noble work wherever their lot may be cast.

Soldier's Pay.

The following are the acts of congress in relation to the pay of volunteers:

An act to increase the pay of privates in the regular army, and of the volunteers in the service of the United States, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled,

That the pay of the privates in the regular army and volunteers in the service of the United States, be thirteen dollars per month for three years, from and after the passage of this act, and until otherwise fixed by law.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted That the provisions of the act entitled "An act for the relief of Ohio and other volunteers," approved July 24th, 1861, be, and the same are, hereby extended to all volunteers mustered into the service of the United States, whether for one, two or three years, or for or during the war. * *

Approved August 6th, 1861.

The act referred to in section 2 above, is as follows:

An act for the relief of the Ohio and other volunteers.

Whereas, the war department has decided that the term of service of the ninety days' volunteers, called out under the act of 1795, commenced on the day when they were actually sworn into the service of the United States: And, whereas, the troops of the United States from the state of Ohio were not sworn into service until some days after their organization and acceptance as companies, by the governor of said state, and that for such period, under existing laws, no payment can be made. Therefore

Be it enacted, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the proper disbursing officer, compute and pay to the said volunteers, compensation from the day of their organization and acceptance as companies by the governor of the state of Ohio, as aforesaid, until the expiration of their term of service.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted That when the militia of other states are situated similarly with those of Ohio, the war department pay them according to the provisions of the foregoing section.

Approved July 24th, 1861.

It will be seen by these acts, that the pay received by the volunteers from the United States, is thirteen dollars per month from the time they are accepted by the governor.

In addition to this, the state of Wisconsin pays "To all volunteers of Wisconsin, having families dependant on them for support," the sum of five dollars per month, to be drawn by such families.

THE NATIONAL FAST.

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Whereas, A joint committee of both houses of congress has waited on the President of the United States, and requested him to recommend a day of Public Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting, to be observed by the People of the United States with religious solemnities, and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God, for the safety and welfare of these states, His blessing on their arms, and a speedy restoration of peace:

And whereas, It is fit and becoming in all people at all times to acknowledge and revere the Supreme Government of God, to bow in humble submission to His chastisements, to confess and deplore their sins and transgressions in the full conviction that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to pray with all fervency and contrition for the pardon of their past offences, and for a blessing upon their present and prospective action:

And whereas, Our beloved country, once, by the blessing of God, united, prosperous and happy, is now afflicted with faction and civil war, and it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation, and in sorrowful remembrances of our own faults and crimes as a nation and as individuals, to humble ourselves before Him, and pray for his mercy—to pray that we may be spared further punishment, though justly deserved; that our arms may be blessed and made effectual for the re-establishment of law, order and peace throughout our country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and religious liberty, earned, under His guidance and blessing, by the labors and sufferings of our fathers, may be restored in all its original excellence: Therefore

I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, do appoint the last Thursday in September next, as a day of Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting for all the people of the Nation, and I do most earnestly recommend to all the people, and especially to all ministers and teachers of religion of all denominations, and to all heads of families—to observe and keep that day according to their several creeds and modes of worship in all humility, and with all religious solemnity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation may ascend to the Throne of Grace, and bring down plentiful blessings upon our own country.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be affixed, this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-sixth.

By the President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP KALARAMA,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27th, 1861.

DEAR BROTHER:—I have been trying to get time to write you as to our camp life, &c., together with the news of the day. We are at the above named place yet. To-day has been a sort of extra day. We were reviewed by Gen. McClellan and staff. There are seven regiments quartered here, under Brigadier General King. We have the right of the brigade. They passed in review to-day as follows: beginning with ours, the 5th Wisconsin, 25th Pennsylvania, 79th New York, 19th Indiana, 6th Wisconsin, and 2d New York Fire Zouaves. The 2d Wisconsin joined our brigade to-day, but they did not arrive in time to pass in review. They are now encamped by the side of us; and the boys are having a big time here visiting with each other. The 2d Wisconsin boys look as though they had seen hard times, and they have no doubt. Several of them show good evidence of the battle by the wounds and sores. Some wounds have already healed up that were really frightful; but take them all in all they feel good, and ready and aching for another fight. The regiments to-day all made a fine show. There was one little incident of the Fire Zouaves that was the style of the New York firemen in full. One of them, as they were just past the reviewing staff, stepped up to Gen. McClellan and wanted to shake hands with him. The General shook hands with him, and the Zouave stepped back one side, folded up his arms, and put an extra touch on his hat by putting it on one side of his head, and with his peculiar style, after viewing the General, exclaimed to him quite coolly, "General, you do me proud!" The General was completely taken by surprise at the style, and let Mr. private Zouave pass.

We were visited to-day by the old gentleman, Mr. Alden and his good wife. They served us in the same way that the good people of Janesville did, when we passed through on our way here. I shall long remember the good people of Janesville.

Well, Mrs. Alden brought us a fine lot of really good edibles in the shape of the best pies, cakes, sandwiches and the like, that I ever eat. You can bet that they were not rejected by us, although we have been strangers to "nick nacks" since we left Wisconsin, but we soon renewed our old acquaintances, and filled our special Haversacks in an amazing short time, and mighty thankful for the favor, too.

To-night we received special orders to see that every man had forty rounds of buck and ball cartridges in his box, and Lieut. Clum and I have just got through issuing cartridges to fill their boxes up where they have used out of the original. We are under orders to be ready to march at any minute, but we may lie here two months for all I know. I am not at all alarmed at yet. I think we will stay here at least two weeks yet. We are all expecting to get paid off the first of September. We are all in want of the one thing cash, and I for one am about dead broke.

We are living a camp life in good earnest. I have not slept on a bed since I left Wisconsin, and in fact on nothing else but the ground, with my blankets over and under me, and I can sleep sound, too, at that.—My health is first rate. I have been well all the while as yet since we left. We have six men in the hospital, and four in their tents, that are sick. Pepper is in Baltimore. Glover, Helms, Newton, Mitchell and Olson are in the hospital here. Wilsie, Waggoner, Dutton and Hodson are in their tents. We have some six or seven others who are grunting but not seriously sick. The remainder are all well.

We get no news here as to what troops are arriving, only as we find out by actual count, and the country is full of them. You can hardly find a place that will afford room enough for a regiment to encamp but there is one on it. All is war here, or preparing for it. It is certainly sickening to see this beautiful country laid waste, as it is being at this very time. We are encamped in one of the pleasantest places I ever saw. Gen. King's headquarters are just between us and the city, in an old country seat. You can stand in the door and see the city, the capitol, the president's house, and all the public buildings; in fact it is the pleasantest place I ever saw, but it is going to rain as fast as it can.

I have sent you several papers, and will send you several more. We get now and then a Gazette, but not half as many as we would like. They are the favorite paper with us.

I should like to hear from you as often as convenient. Our conveniences for writing are not first rate. I am sitting on a camp stool, writing on a box cover. The box is filled with cartridges. Clum is doing the same thing. Give my compliments to your wife and all inquiring friends. It is 11 o'clock and I will close.

From your brother, JAS. MILLS.

For the Daily Gazette.

Who Will Stay at Home?

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In view of the immense proportions that this war is assuming, and the absolute necessity for a vigorous and determined effort on the part of the loyal states to bring it to a speedy and successful termination, permit me to suggest that it cannot be done without fighting, and that we cannot do that successfully without men.

Now, whose duty is it to step forward and fill up the ranks? The rule laid down by Gen. Jackson, at New Orleans, that the owners of the cotton should defend it, is a correct one, and applies to every species of property as well as cotton. More than ninety-nine hundredths of our laws, and the cost of enforcing them, are made for the protection of property alone. This war, on our side, is for the maintenance of the laws and the protection of property, as well as for that of human liberty. Property owners have a double duty to perform. They have property as well as liberty to defend, and the exigency of the times imperatively demands that they come forward now, and take their place in the front ranks. Hitherto those who have had the least at stake have shown the most patriotism, and because they have been the most patriotic, they have had the privilege of doing nearly all the fighting; but it can't be permitted any longer; there are not enough of patriotic poor men to do the work alone, but everybody, all classes, must take hold or we fail. We must come forward as one man, and the question is not, or should not be, Who will go? but "Who shall stay at home?"

Both humanity and economy demand that this war shall be brought to a close this winter. It can be done if we will it. A million of men may be necessary; if so, let a million be raised. Out of 60,000 voters, Arkansas puts 20,000 in the field. If the loyal states do anything like that, this rebellion can be squelched in six months. Send a few thousand at a time, and they will be sacrificed, and the work will not be done. These are times that try men's souls, and those who show themselves true men, and have the courage to meet the foe and conquer a peace will be held in eternal remembrance, whilst the cowards who refuse to accept their share of the responsibility and the danger will be consigned to eternal and merited infamy. A mark of Cain-like reproach will be fixed upon them, and all confidence and preferment will be denied them forever.

Now is the time, gallant men of Rock, to win laurels and save your country.—Don't hang back for a colonel's, a major's, or a captain's commission, or for an appointment as commissary, or quarter-master or good Samaritan. We can't all be officers, nor have good places to make money; but the ranks must be filled. The ranks is the place, step in; it is the post of duty, as well as of honor, just now, and everything most dear to a man—country, liberty, honor, and that other thing which is dearer to cowards than all, property—is at stake. Come on, then, one and all; let none think to avoid the responsibility, or hang back because he has a large farm, or lives in a fine house, or owns banks, mills, bonds and mortgages. You are just the ones to go; your wives and families have something to support them if you fall, and will not need assistance in your absence; besides, a decent pride should induce you to take a fair share of the danger, and not shirk it all on the poor devils who have hitherto borne the brunt of the fight.

There are about 7,500 voters in Rock county; the same ratio as Arkansan would raise 2,500 fighting men. We have raised about six hundred men already, and if we raise 1,000 more, which we should do, we will then have done but little more than half as well as they. Now, can't old Rock, glorious, patriotic, boastful Rock, do more than half as much for law and liberty as Arkansas does for despotism and slavery? She can, and I shall be both disappointed and mortified if she does not. Fall into the ranks, then, everyone, and let us designate who shall stay at home, and let the others march on to victory and duty.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

CHAPTER 242,

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposite with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the word "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposite, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following; "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to take public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States."

SEC 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 8 Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. SEC. 10. SEC 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass."

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposite, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following; "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and transferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receiveable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessarry to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS OFFERED

FOR Getting up Clubs.

Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly!

THE Democrat will continue to be a faithful advocate and supporter of the principles of the republican party. Its energies will be especially devoted to the west—to the advocacy of western interests and the assertion of western rights. The administration of Abraham Lincoln shall receive its cordial and unfaltering support. The great measures of a Pacific railroad on the central route; free lands for the landless; the improvement of river navigation; retrenchment and reform in all the departments of the federal government, will be urged with that zeal and devotion which have won for the Democrat its present position. On all questions it will boldly espouse the right, and only seek its advancement through the public good.

ITS NEWS, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS,

shall be all that readers could desire. The Political, Agricultural and Manufacturing interests of the country shall receive due attention.

THE COMMERCIAL CHARACTER

of the Democrat is well established. This important interest is under the management of one thoroughly familiar with commercial affairs, and we pledge our honor that its figures shall always be the true index of trade here, while it furnishes daily more commercial news than any other paper in Missouri.

DAILY GAZETTE.

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS.—Milo E. Palmer and Hank. C. Reber, two great big hearted, two-story, double-breasted patriots, have started in to recruit a rifle company in our city and neighborhood, for one of the new regiments, with a zeal and spirit truly refreshing; and they are going to win. Here's their call:

"ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS—to the Rescue—Shall Brown county have a representative in this war other than those who seek for place and pay? The subscribers answer aye! All those of the same opinion, will find an opportunity of enlisting at Desnoyer's Hall, in the corner block, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M., for one week."

There is a spice of malice as well as wit in the above notice, which we cannot permit to go without correction and chastisement. It is true Green Bay has furnished no vulgar privates for the purpose of this war; and it oughtn't to have been expected of us. "Every man in his own order," is scripture; and as good as Gospel. The refuse population of Oconto, Appleton, and Oshkosh, and those places, afforded just as good fellows to stand up and be shot at as the chivalry and dignity of Green Bay.—They can shoot a gun as far, and stop a ball as quick as we can.

But when it comes to officers, good, capable, enterprising and willing men, to take charge of things in the field, in the commissary, in the exchequer, Green Bay just flings herself right in the breach. See now what we have done in that line. We have furnished 3 captains, 1 lieutenant, 1 quarter master, 2 assistant do, 1 commissary, 2 surgeons, 1 pay master, 1 pay master's clerk, 1 assistant United State's treasurer. And we hold ourselves ready to do as much more in that line as any town of our age and inches in the state.—Green Bay Press.

HOW THE BULL RUN BATTLE WAS RECEIVED.—Speaking of the late battle at Bull Run and the retreat, the San Francisco Alta says:

"The remarks of the various groups who stood upon the street corners and in public places showed the feeling that prevailed.—It was one of intense bitterness. Men, with pale faces, compressed lips, and clenched fists were heard to exclaim, 'This must be avenged; they were in greater numbers and behind intrenched camps; they dare not meet us face to face in the open field.' Others of more nervous temperament seemed almost frantic, and gave utterance to some very forcible expressions, natural, but scarcely fit for print. Everywhere the feeling evinced was not of fear as to the final result, but of regret and indignation. It will re-arouse the north; and though they may have killed a thousand through the bad management of one of our Generals, a million will take their place, was the general observation. The few traitors in our midst kept quiet—very quiet—and showed no signs of jubilation. Indeed, it was well that they did not, for men's passions were aroused to an unwonted degree. It would not have been difficult to raise a brigade for the war last night in this city. From this our readers may form an idea of the feeling that exists in the loyal cities of the north. The great battle has surely given vast proportions and a different aspect to the war now raging for the preservation of the American Nation."

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Firing on the Virginia Side.

Our despatches daily bring us this news. It may result in a general engagement at any time. The rebles are throwing up immense earthworks on both sides of Munson's Hill, on the Leesburg turnpike, one mile from Baliey's Cross Roads. It is cleared land, and can be plainly seen from our out posts. They have a temporary battery to cover their working parties. It is not likely that Gen. McClellan will allow this to go on a great while, and the firing to-day may be in consequence of his disputing their progress.

The Importance of Butler's Victory.

Just at this time nothing could be more opportune than the victory of Gen. Butler on the North Carolina coast. It gives renewed spirit to the Union cause everywhere, and we have not a doubt has promoted enlistments very materially throughout the country. Men feel a confidence that beneath the impenetrable cloud which now envelopes military affairs, that the administration is at work. We hope to see more results of a like importance before many days.

The victory is important also because it removes one of the principal difficulties in enforcing the blockade, which it is the interest of certain foreign nations to break up if possible. That portion of the North Carolina coast which is now under effective control, is just becoming dangerous to large vessels, on account of the approach of the season of storms. It is peculiar in its formation, making it the scene of more wrecks than any other point on our maritime borders. For hundreds of miles along the coast of North Carolina there is a series of sand bar islands, leaving a basin of water between them and the main shore. This sand bar has several inlets, but the principal one is Hatteras, where the rebels had constructed two forts which have been taken and occupied, together with the light house. Within the basins and sounds to which the Hatteras Inlet leads, the rebels could safely moor their privateers, while they would keep a look out, giving signals to their piratical crafts to come out when a good prize was passing at sea. It is the key of Albemarle Sound, which reaches up near and back of Norfolk, and of Pamlico Sound, extending into North Carolina, upon which are the towns of Newburn and Washington. The possession of Hatteras Inlet, the rebel engineer, whose report was found, says, "is a station second in importance only to Fortress Monroe," and this estimate is, doubtless, not overrated. Why it has never been effectually fortified by the government is strange, considering that it can be made to control so extensive a line of sea coast, as well as the trade of the interior.

THE REPORTED DEATH OF JEFF. DAVIS.—The report of the death of Davis is neither confirmed nor denied by the telegraphic dispatches of this afternoon. We do not rely much upon it, as the rebels are in the habit of manufacturing falsehoods of this kind, for their own amusement, or to effect some ulterior purpose. The health of the rebel chief has been bad for many years, and the wear and tear, physical and mental, for the last few months have been considerable upon a frail constitution, not to say anything of the pains of a guilty conscience, which the most desperate villain, it is said, does not lose entirely. If he is dead there may be a rebellion in the lower dominions before many weeks, as it is believed that Jeff. Davis would at any time "rather reign in hell than serve in Heaven."

The supervisors of Wood county have voted to the families of volunteers, three dollars per month for the wife, and two dollars per month for each child.

☞ We notice in an Albany (N. Y.) paper that Mr. Levi Cass, formerly principal of our High School, has established a school of the same kind in that city.

Honorable Andrew Johnson was serenaded in Cincinnati on the 1st. He made a speech to the large crowd assembled.

MR. HOLT IN BOSTON.

ANOTHER NOBLE SPEECH FROM THE KENTUCKY PATRIOT.

BOSTON, Aug. 29, 1861.

The citizens of Boston gave expression, on Tuesday evening, to the sentiments of high respect which they entertained for the Hon. Joseph Holt, individually, and as a son of the noble state of Kentucky, by a very enthusiastic demonstration in front of the Tremont House.

Mr. Holt descended the steps about 9½ o'clock, with the committee of arrangements and his appearance was the signal for enthusiastic applause. The Hon. Edward Everett then welcomed Mr. Holt to Boston.

At the conclusion of Mr. Everett's remarks, cheers were given for Mr. Holt and for the state of Kentucky, with great enthusiasm. After the band had performed a patriotic air, Mr. Holt stepped forward, and was received with warm applause He said:

SPEECH OF MR. HOLT.

FELLOW CITIZENS: I came to Boston, as do many American travelers, not merely to look upon the city beautiful in itself—upon its monuments, and upon these magnificent landscapes in which, as a jewel, it is set—but also so to revive, if haply I might, the glow of my patriotism amid the thrilling associations that cluster around this cradle of the Revolution. [Cheers and cries of "good"] Here are gardens of memories which can never never lose their fragrances; here are altars whose fires, though kindled in behalf of human rights nearly a century ago, have waxed only the brighter for the years through which they have burned. No true son of the republic can press the soil of Bunker Hill without having his veneration for your great ancestors deepened and exalted, and without feeling his vows of devotion to the country strengthened and renewed. [Cheers.]

I am thankful for that most earnest, that most eloquent, that most flattering recognition, which in your name has been given, of my fidelity to our common country, under circumstances of peril and of trial. Most grateful, too, am I for that friendly, that kindly allusion to my native state, Kentucky, [cheers for Kentucky,] whose star, so long obscured by the baleful influence of unfaithful men, is now preparing to shine forth in the strength and luster of other days. [Applause, and cries of "good," "good."]

Kentucky has assumed her present position under no prompting of passion, but calmly and deliberately, after careful review of the whole field of controversy, and in view of all the gloom and perils that encompass the Union, she now avows she loves it still, and will cling to it amid its sorrows, as she has clung to it in the days of its strength and its glory. [Cheers.] That which she has so nobly declared from the ballot-box, it is now her manifest duty to make good upon the battle-field, [immense applause;] and that duty, already begun, will, I firmly believe, be faithfully performed upon the meeting of her legislature, which takes place but a few days hence. Full, full will be the measure of my joy, when I shall behold the patriot soldiers of Massachusetts and the patriot soldiers of Kentucky meeting upon the same fields of danger, and with the grasp of their fraternal hands, rebuking those traitorous men who, through long years, have striven to render them aliens and enemies to each other.

Fellow citizens, I am gratified to say that during the somewhat extended tour that I have just made, I have nowhere found the public voice faint, or the public voice faltering, in reference to the vigorous prosecution of this war, until the stars and stripes shall float on every flagstaff from which they have been torn. [Applause.] Nowhere have I heard the word COMPROMISE—[cheers and cries of "good," "good,"]—a word which can now be uttered only by disloyal lips, or by those speaking openly and directly in the interests of the rebellion. [Cheers, and a voice—"That's the kind of talk."] So long as the rebels have arms in their hands, there is nothing to compromise [cheers]—nothing but the honor of the country and the integrity of the government; and who, but he who is ready to fill a coward's grave, is prepared for submission to such humiliation as this?

Fellow citizens, It cannot be disguised that we stand at this moment confronted by great national calamities. Eleven members of our Union are in open, and thus far, successful revolt; and an army, it may be of a hundred thousand men, breathing vengeance and slaughter, is hovering upon our lines and menacing the safety of Washington. From this pressing peril no valiant resolves, no brilliant declamation, no fervid prophesyings can possibly deliver us. Nothing but the sword, wielded by skillful and heroic hands, can now save this country from the last catastrophe that can befall a free people. The enemy has been tested, and we can no longer underrate either his power or his recklessness in battle.

Let no man cherish the belief that since this rebellion is the cause of crime, that therefore it will be the less daringly maintained. History has recorded, for our instruction and admiration, that Cataline and his co-conspirators fell with their faces to the enemy; and so probobly will fall the rebel leaders of the south. The more earnest the more prompt, the more united the efforts that are now made, the briefer will be the struggle. All delay, all seeming hesitancy, all discussion, will strengthen the rebellion itself, is fraught with incalculable danger and mischief to ourselves.

If, however, from any cause, this contest is to be prolonged, we must not seek to conceal from ourselves its possible consequences; but even now, in advance, we should bravely and calmly look the worst of them in the face. Your ships may have to furl their sails in many a sea, and the grass may spring up in marts heretofore pressed by the busy feet of commerce; wide spread bankruptcy may possibly ensue, and the wail of sorrow may go up, not only from stricken households and communities, but also from cities and states, over the brave and true men who have laid down their lives upon the altar of their country. But our institutions are well worth all these sacrifices which we may or can possibly make for their preservation. All that we are and all that we have are the fruits of these institutions; and all that we may now generously devote to their safety in this hour of their extreme peril, if we are successful, they will give back to us and our children's children, increased a hundred, nay, a thousand fold.

But even now, in the very shadow of these threatened disasters, even this night and this hour, we could have peace. We could have peace by laying down our necks, our country and our flag in the dust beneath the feet of remorseless traitors. [Loud cries of "Never," "Never!"] But how can we do this, seeing that the graves of our fathers are yet with us, and that Bunker Hill yet speaks to us with voices which will not and cannot be stifled? [Cheers.]

If we falter, we fail; and not only will Washington, your capitol, be subjugated and sacked, but your cities and your fields will be swept over by an army carrying in its train desolations scarcely surpassed since the Goths stabbed their steeds in the palaces of the Cæsars. The fiendish tone of the southern press, its exultant threatenings, and the events which have already transpired, fully justify me in this declaration. If, therefore, we think of our lands and gold, of our merchandise and pleasant homes, or even of the blood that courses in our veins, in contrast with the integrity of our government, we are lost; we shall perish suddenly, irretrieveably, and ignominiously. But if true to ourselves, as I verily believe we will be, if true to the kindling memories of the past, and to the grandeur of our mission as a people, your armies will assuredly triumph; and that triumph the Union sentiment of the south will render complete and enduring [applause,] and thus, out of all this national turmoil, and battle, and blood-shed, and wringing anguish, there will in the end arise a future for our country, bright as that rainbow which spans the mists that mount above the tortured hell of Niagara's waters. For that future, that bow of promise and of beauty may well be accepted as the appropriate emblem. [Applause.]

One of the most fearful obstacles which has been encountered in the successful prosecution of this war is the disloyalty found in the midst of us. [Cries of "that's so."] This is especially true in relation to Washington and the border states; but it is in a great degree true everywhere, and to this is traceable much of that discouragement under which the nation is now suffering.

The country is now rejoicing in those bold and decided measures which the President is taking to subdue this fatal source of weakness and defeat. [Cheers.] It is in vain that the stalwart arms and hearts of this great nation toil at the pumps, so long as men are kept on board with augers in their pockets, who at every stolen opportunity are boring holes in the bottom of the noble ship on which we are embarked. [Applause.]

Fellow-citizens, the thought of dismembering this Union, which has been the source of all our strength and all our joys as a nation, can be entertained by no true man. Dismemberment would involve the abasement of all which we, as Americans, have so long and so justly been proud, and the complete ruin of the grand inheritance which we have received from our fathers, and whith it is our duty to transmit undiminished in its blessings to our descendants. It would conduct us from places of prosperity and power to hovels of wretchedness and to graves of dishonor.

When the wise man of old, sitting in judgment upon the rival claims of two mothers to the possession of the same child, decreed that it should be cut in twain, and that one half should be given to the one claimant and the other half to the other, it was the false mother who accepted and exulted in the judgment, while the true mother turned away with horror, preferring to commit the life of her offspring to the keeping of even her own enemy, rather than that it should thus perish. The filial and the maternal instincts are in this regard the same. The man who is willing that this prosperous and free country shall be severed by the sword of treason now suspended over it, may have been born upon American soil, but he has no American heart in his bosom. [Cheers, and cries of "good."] The true son of the republic, like the true mother, turns away from the proposal with indignation and abborrence. [Great cheering.]

GEN. ROSENCRANS'S ARMY.—The Clarksburg correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says (Aug. 30):

The southern division of the rebel Western Virginia army is supposed to be gradually pushing its way beyond Summersville in the hope of "surrounding" Cox's force at Gauley and regaining the Kunawha. Meanwhile the lines of the two hostile armies at the Cheat Mountain Gaps are gradually approaching and the pickets are now almost within gun shot of each other. Of course nothing would please Lee better than to have Wise create a diversion on the Kanawha that would induce Gen. Rosencrans to withdraw his forces from the Gaps, and so leave a weak point exposed to the watchful enemy. Gen. Lee, it is supposed, will be hardly gratified. But it must be seen that the alarm given in this correspondence some time ago, as to the imperative demand for troops here, was not given a day too soon. We may suffer yet, because the people at home have been and are too skeptical on so vital a point.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal says of Mr. Potter's labors as chairman of the committee for clearing the departments of secessionists:

Mr. Potter is doing the country good service, and it is wholly a work of patriotism, for congressmen being paid a salary, he gets no extra pay for services in the recess of congress, and is not even allowed anything for extra expenses in Washington, and in traveling about the country on public business.

WHY THE SOUTHERN ARMY DO NOT MOVE.—The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel, of the 18th has the following:

It is well known now that General Beauregard's forces at Manassas, previous to Johnston's arrival, were comparatively small, and even after Johnston came, the combined army could not have exceeded forty thousand effective men. Since the battle we have reason to believe that Beauregard and Johnston have under their command much more than a hundred thousand men, enough for all practical purposes. It is not the want of men that has prevented an advance, but the lack of means for transportation, and the lack of food coupled with sickness.

Beauregard has been almost wholly without means of transportation for his vast army and proper food in sufficient quantity, as we have reason to believe, and men who fought the great fight of the 21st and came out of it without a scratch, were in no condition to do military duty for many days. With a little food of suitable quality, fatigued, worn down, they were in no condition to advance. In fact very many of them have been sick since the fight, and it is but the truth to say that they as well as the wounded have not received proper attention from the medical department, which, so far as we can learn, was organized in the very worst manner, if indeed it can be said to have any organization at all.

GEN. FREMONT AND THE SLAVES OF THE REBELS.—In his proclamation establishing martial law throughout Missouri, Gen. Fremont warns all rebels that on their conviction before a court martial, their property will be confiscated and their slaves, if any they have, are in advance declared to be free. This declaration will attract much attention as the introduction of a new policy in reference to the slaves of the rebels. It is a marked and bold step, and an evident improvement upon Gen. Butler's course in confiscating the slaves as contraband.

The effect of this declaration upon the rebels will be decided. The slaves are virtually already freed by Fremont's proclamation. This is a heavy blow, properly and opportunely aimed, and will act as a powerful preventive and sedative to those who are predisposed to, or laboring under the delirium of secession.—St. Louis Democrat.

Kerosene, oil when burning creates an invincible column of flame, which all the waters of Niagara would not quench when of such magnitude as furnished by the three hundred barrels lately consumed at the Duquesne depot of the Pennsylvania railroad in Pittsburg, Pa. A coal oil manufactory in Beach street, Philadelphia, took fire on Monday morning, and was very rapidly consumed with all its contents. The fire department met more than their match.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

Surveyor Andrews yesterday seized twenty-five vessels owned wholly or in most part by rebels, including eight ships and seven barks. Others will be seized to day. The value of vessels seized is over two millions.

The Commercial's special states that it is reported that there were several thousand rebels in the vicinity of Acquia Creek.

Washington is full of rumors of an advance by the rebels, some even stating that they had crossed the Potomac at Edward's Ferry.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.

The report that Hon. David Wilmot was hopelessly ill is incorrent. A letter from him dated Aug. 30th says that he is much better.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

The Post's special says the pickets of both armies are very close to each other on the other side of the Potomac.

The rebels had a dress parade this morning on Munson's Hill. Their artillery is not yet mounted. Carlisle, Asst. Dist. Atty. of District of Columbia, an intimate friend of Mayor Berret, resigned to-day.

Commercial's Despatches.—Our scouts report six rebel regiments at Fairfax Court House and six more further north.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

Eight more vessels were seized by the surveyor to-day including the steamer Marion and the ship Trumbull, the latter was loaded and ready to sail for Antwerp.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Secretary Chase issued a patriotic appeal to the citizens of the United States in behalf of the national loan.

GALLIOPOLIS, Sept. 2.

A fight took place yesterday at Boone Court House, Virginia, between the rebels and three companys of Federal troops, which resulted in the route of the rebels with a loss of thirty killed and large number wounded and ten prisoners. None killed on our side, but six were wounded.—Our men burned the town.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Minister Adams writes that he does not think the British government contemplates any change of position so long as the blockade is continued.

BOSTON, Sept. 2.

Two barks principally owned in Charleston, S. C. were seized by the surveyor of this port to-day, under the confiscation act.

Secretary Seward and Cameron having returned, Attorney General Bates is the only member of the Cabinet out of this city.

During the past week reports have been prevalent here and elswhere, based on alleged private accounts of disastars to General Rosencranz, but it is certain that the war department has no such information.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Sept. 2.

The secessionists robbed the Charleston Branch Bank yesterday of $70,000—twenty-seven thousand in coin, the balance in bills.

Another flag of truce arrived to-day from Gen. Pillow, proposing an exchange of prisoners. Col. Wallace, in command at Bird's Point, will exchange twenty to-morrow.

Gen. Prentiss, at Cape Girardeau this morning, refused to command his column under Gen. Grant. Gen. Grant placed Col. Cook in command, came down to Cairo and telegraphed the facts to Gen. Fremont. Up to 19 o'clock this evening no response had been received from the Major General.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Sept. 1.

Gen. Prentiss and staff arrived here this afternoon. His army of 6,000 men is at Jackson, ten miles west. What the next move will be, and when, must not be known at present. Hardee has left Greenville for the south. The rebels are reported concentrating at New Madrid, where they expect to make a big fight if attacked.

General Prentiss is superceded in this command by Gen. Grant. Prentiss has tendered his resignation to Gen. Fremont, but will, of course, continue to command the brigade till his resignation is accepted. Should he leave at present, it might embarrass the movements of the army.

The march of 75 miles from Ironton has been hard and fatiguing, but the troops bore it admirably. Not even a secession camp was found along the way. They had long since fled. A few rebels were captured, among which was a surgeon and a captain from Jeff. Thompson's army. One had in his pocket a furlough and the other a commission.

The secessionists between the Mississippi and Jonesboro, Ill., stopped a citizen to-day on suspicion of his being a messenger from Gen. Grant. They swear no more such messengers should pass. They will receive prompt attention.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

There is no change in the general status across the Potomac.

There has been skirmishing along the whole line. Four federals and ten confederates were killed. Among the latter was a mounted officer supposed to have been a general.

Eight regiments of confederates are known to be at Fairfax, five at Sangster's, and four at Occatink.

Among the regiments on Munson's Hill are the sixteenth and seventh Virginia, and the Louisiana zouaves.

A reconnoisance of the enemy's forticatious at Munson's Hill discloses the fact that it is a work of great extent and strength, the earthern walls being eight to sixteen feet high, and of proportionate thickness.

The enemy were mounting siege guns on it to-day.

No cavalry or field artillery were seen to-day, showing that they are in use elsewhere.

The steamer Baltimore has retured from a cruise to Aquia Creek. The batteries, and men manning them, are still there; but no other troops were in sight.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.

The Democrat has advices direct from General Thompson's camp at Benton, Scott county, to the effect that all the rebels' heavy baggage at that and other points is being hastily removed to New Madrid, and that Thompson's and Hardee's forces would attempt to effect a junction, fall back on Sikeston, the terminus of the Cairo and Fulton Railroad, where it is supposed they would make a stand and give Gen. Prentiss battle with their combined strength.—Thompson's, Hardee's and Pillow's forces are estimated at 30,000.

Private dispatches announce that Provost Marshal McKinstry has been promoted to Brigadier General.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

The Arago arrived to-day. An officer of the returned expedition from Hatteras reports having seen near Hampton Roads a strange steamer towing what appeared to be a floating battery; believed it was intended to obstruct communication between Fort Monroe and Hampton.

The Courier Des Etats Unis has gone into new hands and will hereafter drop advocating the southern rebellion.

Tammany Hall last night elected a full delegation of loyalists to the Syracuse convention.

Times' Washington correspondent.—It has been determined by the government to hold the position at Cape Hatteras, although the original intention was to destroy and abandon the works, but now it will be made a rendezvous for army and naval forces.—This expedition is but the commencement of operations of which the navy department has made ample preparations and which will be rapidly developed.

The propeller Herbert arrived yesterday, having brought as a prize a small sloop captured the day previous. She is heavily loaded with revolvers, primers, and ammunition, including 10,000 pounds of percussion caps, blankets, surgical instruments, medicines, etc. She was worked by three men, one of whom escaped to the Virginia shore. The others were taken prisoners.—The sloop is said to have taken on the freight in Washington! The Herbert shelled the woods and beach near the Rappahanock without discovering any rebels.

The Herald's correspondent sends the following dispatch—A dispatch has been received here to-day from Richmond, via Louisville, announcing the death of Jeff Davis. This accounts for the display of flags at half mast from the rebel ramparts to-day.

The rebels at Munson's Hill are practicing their artillery in throwing balls and shell into the adjacent houses, compelling the inmates, chiefly women and children, to fly to the woods for safety.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

HALIFAX, Sept. 3.

The steamship Arabia, from Liverpool the 24th, via Queenstown the 25th, has arrived. In provisions there were small transactions. Cotton seed is being regularly shipped to India from Suez. Protestants are to be allowed to open schools in France. Italian soldiers arriving at Porte Wadole, while being refreshed, were set upon by the people and a number massacred. The troops retaliated the next day by destroying the whole town. A number of persons were killed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.

The mayor of Washington has appointed Jas. H. Bradley corporation attorney in place of Jas. M. Carlisle, resigned.

Heavy firing is heard on the Virginia side this morning, but reports are contradictory concerning it.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.

John W. Brown, arrested on Saturday on charge of selling arms to the tebels, was honorably acquitted this morning. No evidence whatever against him.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

Flour receipts 2,032 bbls. state, 5c better with only limited supply offering, other grades dull and unchanged, sales 9,400 bbls. at 4,30a4,35 super state, 4,60a4,80 extra state, 4,35 super western, 4,50a4,70 common to medium extra western, 5,10 shipping brands R. H. O. Canadian flour nominal. Rye flour steady at 2,30a3,80 for range of fine and superior. Receipts of wheat 44,680 bush.; market about 1c per bush. better, supply quite limited; sales 5,000 bush. at 1,06a1,08 Milwaukee club, 1,10a1,15 winter red western, 1,13 white western, 1,30 prime new white Michigan.

A Commendable Example.

The manner in which the Douglas brigade in Chicago was organised in Chicago is an example worthy of imitation. Fractions of more companies than were necessary to form the brigade had collected in camp, with full sets of commissioned officers, and the brigade was in danger of being delayed by the want of sufficient full companies. In this state of things the different companies were combined, and a new election of officers held. This threw out some who wore the shoulder straps and the gilt bars across them, but all submitted cheerfully and the brigade was organised. When the election of field officers took place, Col. Stuart, who had taken the lead in the organization of the brigade, was complimented by an election as colonel, but he declined the place, and Capt. W. H. Webb, of the regular army, was chosen to the first command. Stuart was then unanimously elected lieutenant colonel, and accepted the place. A major was elected by a unanimous vote, and the other offices filled to the complete acceptance of the men. The brigade will now start for St. Louis, in full numbers and excellent condition, as soon as its equipments can be procured.

This example we commend to the fractions of companies scattered throughout this county. Combine your companies, let the officers take the chances of a new election, and get into shape to be effective as soon as possible. If a new regiment is raised in this and Green county, there must be a united effort, and all personal or local feeling must be forgotten.

DRUM MAJOR EIGHTH REGIMENT.—Francis M. Keeley, of this city, has been appointed drum major of the 8th regiment, under command of Col. Murphy. He has formerly filled the same duty in the British service.

GEN. PRENTISS SUPERCEDED.—The reason given in the Chicago Tribune for the order depriving Gen. Prentiss of his command, and giving it to Gen. Grant, is that the former is not an educated soldier and the latter is. This can hardly be the sole ground, for Gen. Fremont himself is not a West Point officer, and has had considerable unpleasant experience with regular officers on that account. Gen. Prentiss no doubt is a good officer with a small body of men, but perhaps has shown himself unsuccessful in handling a number of regiments together.

A PATRIOTIC LETTER FROM A MASSACHUSETTS SHOEMAKER.—The secretary of the treasury has received the following letter, which shows how the people of the old Bay State regard the war. Its tone of earnest, hearty patriotism makes it worthy of being printed in letters of gold:

"I am a shoemaker of limited means, but I want to lend government this hundred dollars to assist it a little in the maintenance of its authority—its existence.

"The reason I send it to you rather than to invest it here is, I want to give 'Uncle Sam' all the profit; so I don't want any interest on it. All I want is, that you should send me a government note, promising to pay to me or bearer $100 on demand any time after the 26th of August, 1871, without interest. If times are hard with the government then, I will make a goodly abatement from this. If you are not empowered to invest the money in this way, invest it in the next way that will be the most profitable to the government.

"LONG LIFE TO UNCLE SAM.

"May the blessing of God make your efforts to save our beloved country successful. Respectfully yours, * *

"P. S. An early return will prevent apprehension that this did not reach you. Physical disability alone prevents my assisting as a volunteer."

ANECDOTE OF VALLANDINGHAM.—Previous to the attack on Sumter, the notorious dirt eater of Ohio made a boast that the first regiment that left Ohio to fight the south, would have to march over his dead body. It so happened that the Ohio 1st regiment went from his district, and marched past his house. When close upon it the regiment halted, and the colonel said:—"You are now to pass over the dead body of Vallandingham; let every man hold on to his——nose," which they did till all had passed.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,
Well known to be the best for
Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer.) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Departure of the Fire Zouaves for Camp Randall.

The Fire Zouaves, Capt. Wm. B. Britton, left this city, on the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien Railway at 11 o'clock A. M., for Camp Randall, Madison, to take their place in the Eighth Regiment. According to the arrangements made last night the fire department, under the command of James Hemming, acting chief engineer, and the Zouave Cadets, Lieut. Murray, commanding, formed on the court house square at half past ten o'clock, in the following order:

1s.—Martial Band.
2d.—Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2.
3d—Washington Engine Co. No. 3.
4th.—Janesville Zouave Cadets.

The procession then marched up Main to Milwaukee street, up Milwaukee street to the depot, where a large crowd of our citizens had gathered to bid the Fire Zouaves farewell. The train was waiting and consequently all other arrangements were suspended, the procession breaking ranks and gathering around the cars to shake hands with their friends and companions who are now in the service of their country. Soon the train was under motion and then nine cheers were given for the brave Fire Zouaves by the whole crowd. This company is composed principally of the active members of the fire department of this city, the chief engineer at their head. They will do noble work wherever their lot may be cast.

Soldier's Pay.

The following are the acts of congress in relation to the pay of volunteers:

An act to increase the pay of privates in the regular army, and of the volunteers in the service of the United States, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled,

That the pay of the privates in the regular army and volunteers in the service of the United States, be thirteen dollars per month for three years, from and after the passage of this act, and until otherwise fixed by law.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted That the provisions of the act entitled "An act for the relief of Ohio and other volunteers," approved July 24th, 1861, be, and the same are, hereby extended to all volunteers mustered into the service of the United States, whether for one, two or three years, or for or during the war. * *

Approved August 6th, 1861.

The act referred to in section 2 above, is as follows:

An act for the relief of the Ohio and other volunteers.

Whereas, the war department has decided that the term of service of the ninety days' volunteers, called out under the act of 1795, commenced on the day when they were actually sworn into the service of the United States: And, whereas, the troops of the United States from the state of Ohio were not sworn into service until some days after their organization and acceptance as companies, by the governor of said state, and that for such period, under existing laws, no payment can be made. Therefore

Be it enacted, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the proper disbursing officer, compute and pay to the said volunteers, compensation from the day of their organization and acceptance as companies by the governor of the state of Ohio, as aforesaid, until the expiration of their term of service.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted That when the militia of other states are situated similarly with those of Ohio, the war department pay them according to the provisions of the foregoing section.

Approved July 24th, 1861.

It will be seen by these acts, that the pay received by the volunteers from the United States, is thirteen dollars per month from the time they are accepted by the governor.

In addition to this, the state of Wisconsin pays "To all volunteers of Wisconsin, having families dependant on them for support," the sum of five dollars per month, to be drawn by such families.

SWORDS ARRIVED.—The swords for the officers of the Fire Zouave company have been received, and may be seen to-day and to-morrow at S. C. Spaulding's jewelry store.

☞ E. V. Wilson will lecture at the Court Room this evening.

GRAPES.—D. Ballou has received a lot of grapes, of this season's growth, which are excellent. He has a quantity for sale at his grocery on Main street.

MELONS.—Messrs. Torreys keep quantities of melons for sale at their grocery on East Milwaukee street.

THE NATIONAL FAST.

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Whereas, A joint committee of both houses of congress has waited on the President of the United States, and requested him to recommend a day of Public Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting, to be observed by the People of the United States with religious solemnities, and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God, for the safety and welfare of these states, His blessing on their arms, and a speedy restoration of peace:

And whereas, It is fit and becoming in all people at all times to acknowledge and revere the Supreme Government of God, to bow in humble submission to His chastisements, to confess and deplore their sins and transgressions in the full conviction that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to pray with all fervency and contrition for the pardon of their past offences, and for a blessing upon their present and prospective action:

And whereas, Our beloved country, once, by the blessing of God, united, prosperous and happy, is now afflicted with faction and civil war, and it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation, and in sorrowful remembrances of our own faults and crimes as a nation and as individuals, to humble ourselves before Him, and pray for his mercy—to pray that we may be spared further punishment, though justly deserved; that our arms may be blessed and made effectual for the re-establishment of law, order and peace throughout our country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and religious liberty, earned, under His guidance and blessing, by the labors and sufferings of our fathers, may be restored in all its original excellence: Therefore

I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, do appoint the last Thursday in September next, as a day of Humiliation, Prayer and Fasting for all the people of the Nation, and I do most earnestly recommend to all the people, and especially to all ministers and teachers of religion of all denominations, and to all heads of families—to observe and keep that day according to their several creeds and modes of worship in all humility, and with all religious solemnity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation may ascend to the Throne of Grace, and bring down plentiful blessings upon our own country.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be affixed, this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-sixth.

By the President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP KALARAMA,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27th, 1861.

DEAR BROTHER:—I have been trying to get time to write you as to our camp life, &c., together with the news of the day. We are at the above named place yet. To-day has been a sort of extra day. We were reviewed by Gen. McClellan and staff. There are seven regiments quartered here, under Brigadier General King. We have the right of the brigade. They passed in review to-day as follows: beginning with ours, the 5th Wisconsin, 25th Pennsylvania, 79th New York, 19th Indiana, 6th Wisconsin, and 2d New York Fire Zouaves. The 2d Wisconsin joined our brigade to-day, but they did not arrive in time to pass in review. They are now encamped by the side of us; and the boys are having a big time here visiting with each other. The 2d Wisconsin boys look as though they had seen hard times, and they have no doubt. Several of them show good evidence of the battle by the wounds and sores. Some wounds have already healed up that were really frightful; but take them all in all they feel good, and ready and aching for another fight. The regiments to-day all made a fine show. There was one little incident of the Fire Zouaves that was the style of the New York firemen in full. One of them, as they were just past the reviewing staff, stepped up to Gen. McClellan and wanted to shake hands with him. The General shook hands with him, and the Zouave stepped back one side, folded up his arms, and put an extra touch on his hat by putting it on one side of his head, and with his peculiar style, after viewing the General, exclaimed to him quite coolly, "General, you do me proud!" The General was completely taken by surprise at the style, and let Mr. private Zouave pass.

We were visited to-day by the old gentleman, Mr. Alden and his good wife. They served us in the same way that the good people of Janesville did, when we passed through on our way here. I shall long remember the good people of Janesville.

Well, Mrs. Alden brought us a fine lot of really good edibles in the shape of the best pies, cakes, sandwiches and the like, that I ever eat. You can bet that they were not rejected by us, although we have been strangers to "nick nacks" since we left Wisconsin, but we soon renewed our old acquaintances, and filled our special Haversacks in an amazing short time, and mighty thankful for the favor, too.

To-night we received special orders to see that every man had forty rounds of buck and ball cartridges in his box, and Lieut. Clum and I have just got through issuing cartridges to fill their boxes up where they have used out of the original. We are under orders to be ready to march at any minute, but we may lie here two months for all I know. I am not at all alarmed at yet. I think we will stay here at least two weeks yet. We are all expecting to get paid off the first of September. We are all in want of the one thing cash, and I for one am about dead broke.

We are living a camp life in good earnest. I have not slept on a bed since I left Wisconsin, and in fact on nothing else but the ground, with my blankets over and under me, and I can sleep sound, too, at that.—My health is first rate. I have been well all the while as yet since we left. We have six men in the hospital, and four in their tents, that are sick. Pepper is in Baltimore. Glover, Helms, Newton, Mitchell and Olson are in the hospital here. Wilsie, Waggoner, Dutton and Hodson are in their tents. We have some six or seven others who are grunting but not seriously sick. The remainder are all well.

We get no news here as to what troops are arriving, only as we find out by actual count, and the country is full of them. You can hardly find a place that will afford room enough for a regiment to encamp but there is one on it. All is war here, or preparing for it. It is certainly sickening to see this beautiful country laid waste, as it is being at this very time. We are encamped in one of the pleasantest places I ever saw. Gen. King's headquarters are just between us and the city, in an old country seat. You can stand in the door and see the city, the capitol, the president's house, and all the public buildings; in fact it is the pleasantest place I ever saw, but it is going to ruin as fast as it can.

I have sent you several papers, and will send you several more. We get now and then a Gazette, but not half as many as we would like. They are the favorite paper with us.

I should like to hear from you as often as convenient. Our conveniences for writing are not first rate. I am sitting on a camp stool, writing on a box cover. The box is filled with cartridges. Clum is doing the same thing. Give my compliments to your wife and all inquiring friends. It is 11 o'clock and I will close.

From your brother, JAS. MILLS.

For the Daily Gazette.

Who Will Stay at Home?

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In view of the immense proportions that this war is assuming, and the absolute necessity for a vigorous and determined effort on the part of the loyal states to bring it to a speedy and successful termination, permit me to suggest that it cannot be done without fighting, and that we cannot do that successfully without men.

Now, whose duty is it to step forward and fill up the ranks? The rule laid down by Gen. Jackson, at New Orleans, that the owners of the cotton should defend it, is a correct one, and applies to every species of property as well as cotton. More than ninety-nine hundredths of our laws, and the cost of enforcing them, are made for the protection of property alone. This war, on our side, is for the maintenance of the laws and the protection of property, as well as for that of human liberty. Property owners have a double duty to perform. They have property as well as liberty to defend, and the exigency of the times imperatively demands that they come forward now, and take their place in the front ranks. Hitherto those who have had the least at stake have shown the most patriotism, and because they have been the most patriotic, they have had the privilege of doing nearly all the fighting; but it can't be permitted any longer; there are not enough of patriotic poor men to do the work alone, but everybody, all classes, must take hold or we fail. We must come forward as one man, and the question is not, or should not be, Who will go? but "Who shall stay at home?"

Both humanity and economy demand that this war shall be brought to a close this winter. It can be done if we will it. A million of men may be necessary; if so, let a million be raised. Out of 60,000 voters, Arkansas puts 20,000 in the field. If the loyal states do anything like that, this rebellion can be squelched in six months. Send a few thousand at a time, and they will be sacrificed, and the work will not be done. These are times that try men's souls, and those who show themselves true men, and have the courage to meet the foe and conquer a peace will be held in eternal remembrance, whilst the cowards who refuse to accept their share of the responsibility and the danger will be consigned to eternal and merited infamy. A mark of Cain-like reproach will be fixed upon them, and all confidence and preferment will be denied them forever.

Now is the time, gallant men of Rock, to win laurels and save your country.—Don't hang back for a colonel's, a major's, or a captain's commission, or for an appointment as commissary, or quarter-master or good Samaritan. We can't all be officers, nor have good places to make money; but the ranks must be filled. The ranks is the place, step in; it is the post of duty, as well as of honor, just now, and everything most dear to a man—country, liberty, honor, and that other thing which is dearer to cowards than all, property—is at stake. Come on, then, one and all; let none think to avoid the responsibility, or hang back because he has a large farm, or lives in a fine house, or owns banks, mills, bonds and mortgages. You are just the ones to go; your wives and families have something to support them if you fall, and will not need assistance in your absence; besides, a decent pride should induce you to take a fair share of the danger, and not shirk it all on the poor devils who have hitherto borne the brunt of the fight.

There are about 7,500 voters in Rock county; the same ratio as Arkansas would raise 2,500 fighting men. We have raised about six hundred men already, and if we raise 1,000 more, which we should do, we will then have done but little more than half as well as they. Now, can't old Rock, glorious, patriotic, boastful Rock, do more than half as much for law and liberty as Arkansas does for despotism and slavery? She can, and I shall be both disappointed and mortified if she does not. Fall into the ranks, then, everyone, and let us designate who shall stay at home, and let the others march on to victory and duty.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
Cash Capital over - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposit, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposit in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and transferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

Chapter 242, approved April 13, 1861; Chapter 1, Extra Session, approved May 25, 1861.
